MUSIC, DANCING AND A WHOLE LOT OF FUN JUST FOR KIDS

(IRVING, TEXAS) — A new concert series is coming to Irving, but this one has a height restriction. Calling all mini music lovers ages 5 years and younger, get your parents to bring you out to the Irving Concert Series 4 Kids! The first show is April 27, the other two shows will take place May 25 and June 22.

All shows will be held at the Irving Soccer Complex, 3585 World Cup Way, Irving, TX 75038. Gates open at 9:00 a.m., the show will start at 10:00 a.m. In the event of inclement weather, the shows will be moved to an indoor location.

The music is just half the fun, the event has so much more going on. Before the show starts kids can check out the playground and participate in a craft activity. There will be a concession stand available; however, outside food and drinks are allowed. Covered seating is limited, attendees are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets. Admission and parking are free.

This year's lineup is as follows.

- April 27, Mister G
- May 25, Big Bang Boom
- June 22, AndyRoo

This is the first year the City of Irving has put together a concert series specifically for kids. The success of the series is dependent on support from the community. Parents are encouraged to fill out a survey while at the event. Those who do will be entered to win free tickets to Medieval Times. The Irving Concert Series 4 Kids is presented by the City of Irving.
