IRVING CONCERT SERIES TO FEATURE VINTAGE VIBES AND LATIN RHYTHMS

Series kicks off April 6

(IRVING, TEXAS) – Liven up your Friday nights with live music from the city’s annual Irving Concert Series.

The Concert Series will showcase “Vintage Vibes” during the month of April and “Latin Rhythms” in May. The concerts are free and held from 7 to 8:45 p.m. at Irving’s Whistlestop Plaza, 123 W. Irving Blvd. Admission and parking are free.

All concerts take place in a grassy field where seating is not provided. Residents are encouraged to bring blankets or lawn chairs for comfort. Food and beverages will be available for purchase from food vendors.

Dog owners can bring their four-legged friends to enjoy the fun. Attending dogs must be leashed and well-behaved. Owners are responsible for removing pet waste.

Concerts are rain or shine events. If inclement weather creates a potentially unsafe outdoor environment, concerts will move to the Heritage Senior Center, 200 S. Jefferson St. Visit the event’s Inclement Weather Plan for additional information. Dogs are not allowed inside the Heritage Senior Center.

The event is sponsored by Champion Windows and Home Exteriors. For more information, visit the Irving Concert Series webpage at <http://www.cityofirving.org/1267/Irving-Concert-Series>.
