City of Irving to Hold Minority/Women Business Workshop

Ways to Network More Effectively – Developing the Connections to Grow Your Company

(IRVING, TEXAS) – The City of Irving will host a Minority/Women Owned Business Workshop to discuss the relationship between company growth and effective networking techniques on Oct. 25.

Irving Hispanic Chamber of Commerce President and CEO Mary Ann Kellam will present “Ways to Network More Effectively – Developing the Connections to Grow Your Company.” Kellam will discuss successful networking tips and offer attendees the opportunity to practice networking with each other. Guests are encouraged to ask questions during the presentation.

Registration is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. in Irving City Hall Council Chambers, 825 W. Irving Blvd. The workshop begins at 6 p.m.

The city encourages everyone interested in attending to RSVP with Deborah McVean, MWBE Program Administrator at (972) 721-3753 or email dmcvean@cityofirving.org.
