City of Irving Honors Legacy of Martin Luther King Jr. Jan. 19

City Recognizes the Life and Achievements of Dr. King with “Keep Moving Forward” Observance

(IRVING, TEXAS) — Join the City of Irving to honor the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr. on Jan 19 at the Irving Arts Center, 3333 N. MacArthur Blvd.

The free event will be held at 6 p.m. in the art center’s Carpenter Performance Hall. The evening will feature performances from the Dallas Black Dance Theatre, Antioch Christian Church and Soul Rep Theatre, and will incorporate the theme “Keep Moving Forward.”

Additionally, the event will include essay readings from the winners of the Parks and Recreation Department’s essay contest. Contestants were divided into three categories, determined by grade level and judged on clarity, grammar and incorporation of this year’s theme, “Keep Moving Forward.”

Event admission and parking are free.

For more information, call (972) 721- 2501 or visit Irving Events.
