Eerie Irving Promises a Night of Thrills and Friendly Fright

(IRVING, Texas) – On Saturday, Oct. 21 from 6 to 10 p.m. ghosts, ghouls and monsters will take over Trinity View Park, 2221 E. State Hwy 356 for Eerie Irving. But not to worry, these not-so-scary creatures are family-friendly.

The free event will feature:

- Carnival Rides
- Games
- Face Painting
- Balloon Art
- Photo Ops
- Live DJ
- Food Vendors
- Pumpkin Giveaway (Limit 3 per family)

More daring eventgoers can enter the Eerie Walk-Thru Experience and test their limits with five enclosed spooky scenes. Characters from The Nightmare Before Christmas and The Ghostbusters also will be there.

Entrance and Parking

Attendees traveling from Loop 12 should take the Irving Blvd. exit and travel east. Access to Eerie Irving will be available from both entrances on the service road from Irving Boulevard/State Highway 356 to Trinity View. Handicapped parking will be available at the front entrance of the park. View an interactive map. Entry to the park will close at 9:15 p.m.
