Description: The file contains reports on the Irving Archives and some records of the Archives' activities. The reports include a student's paper from 1994, a 1997 consultant's report with recommendations for development, two presentation outlines from 1996 and 1997, a report prepared by the City Archivist in 1999 for the Director of Libraries. The topics of the reports are the history and current status of the Archives and the need for additional resources. The other records in the file include announcements to the public, a schedule from an archives conference hosted by Irving Archives, a proposal for an internship program, and an outline of projects for Irving's 2003 centennial celebration.
