JIM AND FRANK DAVIS DIE

Mississippi Mob Soon Disposes of Couple.

Lulu, Miss., Oct. 12.—Jim and Frank Davis, negroes, charged with having shot and probably fatally wounded John C. Kendall, a conductor of the Illinois Central railroad, were taken from the jail here Sunday night by a mob and hanged. The shooting of Kendall occurred aboard a passenger train near here late Sunday when he endeavored to quiet the negroes who, it is claimed, had been drinking and creating a disturbance. Another negro who participated in the shooting escaped. A posse started after him. The mob was quietly formed some distance from the jail. Walking to the prison they demanded the negroes. Upon being refused the determined men overcame the sheriff, his deputies and jailer, entered, secured the two blacks, took them out and strung them up.

Passing of Prominent Preacher.
New York: Rev. Morgan Dix, D.
D. rector of Trinity Church, died Wednesday night at the rectory of Trinity in West Twenty-Fifth Street. He had been ill only since Friday, when he contracted a cold, and although he had not left the rectory thereafter, had been confined to his bed but two days with an attack of asthma. Dr.
Dix was 80 years old. Heart failure caused by the asthmatic attack and his great age, was the immediate cause of his death.

Played Too Realistic.
Paris: Arthur Douglas, colored, 23 years old, accidentally killed himself in a singular manner at the home of Dr. J. H. Miller on Kaufman street, where he was employed as cook. After dinner Dr. and Mrs. Miller left him in the dining room putting away the dishes. They left their two grandchildren, 4 and 6 years old, with him. In the short while the children ran into the house and told their grandparents that the negro was choking himself with a towel. It is thought that he intended to make the children think he was going to hang himself, for a joke, and that when the slipknot tightened he lost his presence of mind and fainted.

Downs, Emily

In Oak Cliff on last Friday Mrs. Emily Downs, one of those sweet christian characters who always make the world better by their being in it, passed away and entered that land of bliss beyond the dark sea of death. She leaves a husband, three sons and a daughter to mourn her death. Her eldest son, Wesley, was a constant watcher at her bedside during her long seige of sickness and his untiring devotion will certainly be rewarded by the Great Giver of all Good. Her passing away was as if in a peaceful slumber. She was one of those grand Christian mothers that has made our beautiful country what it is. Her life is an example for the present generation and should be emulated. Her remains were interred in the Oak Cliff cemetery Sunday evening last, under the ritual rites of the Catholic church, of which her son Wesley is a member. Peace be hers and the Comforting Spirit of the blessed Savior be with the bereaved ones left behind.

Two Killed in a Duel.

Luling: Two men were killed in a shotgun-pistol duel that occurred in a saloon here Wednesday. One of the decedents, B. J. Wyatt, was a bystander; the other, James C. Duke, was a participant in the affray. Ed Reedy, a bartender, was placed under arrest. The town is manifestly agitated. Wyatt and L. W. Boyd, the owner of the saloon, were the only witnesses to the affair.

Death Follows a Mere Scratch.

Fort Worth: Judge Frank E. Dycus, one of the most widely known members of the Fort Worth bar, died Wednesday at the family residence, following an illness of five weeks as the result of blood poison, due to a scratch received from a tack on the middle finger of the right hand. At the time the wound was received it was considered of little consequence. Three days ago an operation was resorted to, but failed to result in relief.
