FOUR KILLED IN TYLER.

Cyclone Strikes East Texas City Fearful Blow.

Tyler, Tex., Feb. 15.—Just before four o'clock yesterday morning a terrible cyclone hit the eastern part of Tyler in the residence district, tearing houses to kindling and killing four persons. Without warning, it seems, the cyclone struck in the southwestern part of the city and quickly traversed the town. So far only four are known to be dead. One family of a man, wife and infant baby were killed, also one aged negro man.

The path of the cyclone does not exceed one hundred feet, and even people living beside its path did not know that anything was wrong until they awoke at daybreak.

The dead are: C. A. Francis, Mrs. Willie Francis, infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Francis, Mose Lee, an aged negro man.

The house in which the Francis family lived was picked up from the blocks bodily and scattered for over a mile in the path of the storm. The body of Mr. Francis was found two hundred yards from the site of the house, and their baby was down in the street some distance from the house.

The cyclone then seemed to lift, passing across to another hill, almost a quarter of a mile distant, striking the house in which the aged negro, Lee, was living, and tearing his house into kindling wood. The negro was found in the debris after daybreak. Just across the street it struck the house of Tom Jackson, a negro, tearing it entirely to pieces, but not hurting any of the occupants.
