Suicided in Fort Worth.

Fort Worth: Sunday night the night watchman at the Worth Hotel, upon hearing a pistol shot, went to room 76, where he found E. C. Gambrell of Dallas lying upon the floor and breathing his last from a wound directly through the heart. The pistol was found on the opposite side of the room, while the body had fallen from the side of the bed. Two letters—one to his wife and one to a local newspaper man—were found.

Farmer is Shot.

Houston: Will Gammage, a prominent farmer, was fatally shot at Hempstead by John Wilson, a Winchester being used. The shooting was the result of a wrangle at Sunnyside, in which Gammage shot at Dave Wilson and two sons, wounding one son. The men met Friday near a church, and Wilson used a Winchester. The origin of the row is not known.

Girl Murderer Electrocuted.
Albany, N. Y.: Chester Gillette was successfully electrocuted at Auburn prison Monday morning. It was the most successful electrocution ever had in the Auburn prison. One contact of 1,800 volts was all that was necessary to kill. This was turned on at 6:14.03 and off at 6:15.06 and the man was declared dead by Warden Bennett at 6:18. Chester Gillette was unmoved and did not show the faintest sign of emotion of any kind.
