

Roy Russell, Jr.
 Carrollton & Farmers Branch
 TXGenWeb

Home > People > R > Roy Russell Jr.

1939 The Silver Lion
Carrollton High School
Carrollton, Dallas Co., Texas
Senior Class

Roy Russell, Jr.
Band - '36-'39
F.F.A. - '37-'39
Boy's Choral Club - '39
Track - '39

1951

OBITUARY

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR ROY RUSSELL, JR.

Roy Russell, Jr. of Irving, killed Friday when thrown from a motorcycle was buried Sunday following services at 2:30 p.m. in Irving's First Baptist Church.

Officiating were Revs. Earl W. Johnson, C. E. Collett, and Jack Merritt. Interment was in Baccus Cemetery of Collin County, near Frisco.

Mr. Russell died following an accident last Friday when he was thrown off a motorcycle on Highway 183 near Irving.

He was 28 years of age and had lived in the Irving community for several years. After attending school at Carrollton and North Texas Agricultural College, Arlington, he served three and one-half years in the United States Coast Guard during World War II. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Laverne Russell, 619 S. Britain St., Irving.

Arrangements were in charge of Black's Funeral Home, Irving.

March 6 1951
JNE

Death

Claims

Will Story

A lifetime resident, Will C. Story, 83, died Monday near the log cabin in which he was born on August 7, 1874.

A retired farmer, Story has spent his lifetime on the property settled by his parents, the late Mr. & Mrs. Tom Story, when they arrived here after a wagon trip from Peoria, Illinois in 1855. The Story estate is one mile north of Irving.

In 1895, Story met and married the former Miss Fanny Farline, daughter of another pioneer family.

Funeral services are set for 4 PM today in the Church of Christ at First and Delaware with the Rev. James F. Fowler officiating.

Burial will be in the old Sowers Cemetery under the direction of Leach Funeral Home. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Fannie Story; two sons, Clarence and Raymond Story, both of Irving; six daughters, Mrs. Ada Lea Mitchell, Mrs. J.W. Clapp of Chicago; Mrs. Glen Gallimore of Los Angeles; Mrs. Grace Watts of Ft. Worth; Mrs. Gus Brunson of Gregton; and Mrs. John Muesse of Dallas; 13 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

WILLIAM C. STORY

Make the editorial page of The Irving News a regular reading habit.