

Mrs. Mollie Derr Buried at McAdoo

Mrs. Mollie Derr, age 95, passed away Saturday. She made her home in Richland Hills with her grandson Jack Derr.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of Black's Funeral Home of Irving. The body was sent to Mrs. Derr's home, McAdoo, Texas for burial.

Surviving is a son Jack Derr, 322 West 2nd St. in Irving; a son at Hillsboro; and a daughter.

19 Apr 54

p1

He goes straight to the point when he buys a TV set. He looks for the big tag that reads "Engineered by CBS-Columbia." It identifies America's most advanced TV set! Yes, CBS-Columbia has TV's top values and STOVALL-LANDRESS has CBS-Columbia.

March 19 1951 DR
Duniho Rites Held

At Baptist Church

Funeral services for John T. Duniho, a Texas Company employee for many years, were held Monday at the First Baptist Church of Irving with the Rev. F. B. Hamilton, Rev. Henry Kinkead and Rev. J. C. Hibbard officiating.

Interment was in Grove Hill Cemetery under the direction of Leach Funeral Home.

A long time resident of Irving Duniho resided at 508 Main St. He died Saturday.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Duniho; daughters, Mrs. H. L. Johnson, Roswell, N. M.; Mrs. Beulah Hutcheson, Irving; sons, E. E. Duniho, Sedalia, Mo.; C. C. Duniho, Roswell, N. M.; G. B. Charlie and Bill McDowell of Irving; twenty-three grandchildren, four great-grandchildren.

Erief Illness Claims Life

Of A. B. Elliott, Jr.

Aaron B. Elliott, 41 year old Irving man passed away in a Dallas hospital Sunday, following a brain operation. He had been seriously ill for the past two weeks.

A resident of Irving for many years, Elliott was employed at the Cain T. V. Service at the time of his illness. He resided with his family at 403 S. Iowa Street.

The Rev. D. H. Holley, pastor of Oak View Baptist Church conducted the funeral services Tuesday in the Chapel. Interment was in Admiral Cemetery at Baird, Texas.

Black's Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lois Elliott; two sons, Curtis Roy and Bernice Duane; a daughter, Bertha Marie; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron B. Elliott Sr.; three sisters, Mrs. R. T. Smedley, Mrs. Pauline Elliott; Mrs. Hugh Poage.

17 Sept 54

P1

Funeral Rites Set For Mrs. Fairless

14 May 54
FNR p1

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Iona Fairless, 82, a resident west of Irving was held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Black's Funeral Chapel.

Mrs. Fairless, the wife of S. F. Fairless, a retired farmer who survives, died Monday night in a Dallas hospital. Other survivors are four sons, Ronald H. Fairless of Gainesville, James N. Fairless of Florida, Victor Fairless of Canada and Paul N. Fairless of Irving; a daughter, Mrs. M. M. Goddard of Waggoner, Okla.; stepmother, Mrs. Mary Hubbard of Paris, and three sisters, Mrs. M. H. Schroom of Fort Worth, Mrs. Dhu Cook of Vernon and Mrs. Irene Brown of Paris.

The Rev. M. B. Baldwin officiated at the services with burial in Burleson Cemetery in Burleson

John Farine Buried Here

Funeral services were held Thursday for John S. Farine who died suddenly near Rio Grande, Texas on November 6. A commercial fisherman, Farine resided in Dallas at 1613 Lunney Road.

The Rev. Robert L. Cargill conducted the services which were held in Black's Funeral Chapel. Interment was in Sowers Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife Edna; six sons and five daughters; a brother, Arthur Farine of Irving; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Redmon of Irving.

14 Nov 54
p 7

G.W. Fenley

Rites Held

Funeral services for George W. Fenley, 44, were held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning in the George A. Brewer Funeral Chapel at Dallas.

Fenley died Sunday while enroute to a Dallas hospital after a seizure at his home, 1003 Edmonson Drive. He had been employed as printer for the Dallas Times Herald since 1938 and had resided in Irving six years.

A native of Dallas, Mr. Fenley was born April 19, 1910 and was a graduate of Forest Avenue High School. His family was among the pioneer settlers of the Reinhardt area.

He served in the 112th Cavalry of the National Guard as first sergeant, and served with the group more than two years in the South Pacific during World War II. He was discharged in 1945 at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Surviving are his wife; a son, George Wilson Fenley, both of Irving; mother, Mrs. Relf Fenley of Dallas; four sisters, Mrs. L. L. Fowler of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Earl Fenley of Dallas, Mrs. Lloyd Leonard of Kansas City, Missouri, and Mrs. E. L. Pounds of Texarkana; and two brothers, Thomas Albert and Relf N. Fenley, both of Dallas.

15 Oct 54

p 5

IRVING NEWS-RECORD, IRVING, TEXAS, MARCH 12, 1954

Missouri Rites For

Mrs. Fitzgerald

Mrs. Mabel M. Fitzgerald passed away Saturday at her home 732 S. Delaware St., in Irving. Funeral services will be held in Cameron, Missouri at the Poland Funeral Home.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was born in Cameron, Missouri. She was formerly Miss Mabel Owen and a direct descendant of the first settlers of northwest Missouri.

She was educated in St. Joseph, Missouri and a graduate of Sacred Heart College.

Her grandfather, Col. Albert Owen was one of the official party who rode the first train from St. Joseph, Mo. through northwest Missouri.

Mrs. Fitzgerald came to Dallas in 1941 and had lived in Irving for the last few years.

She is survived by two daughters: Leone Stephenson and Bebe Bently of Irving and son, Doyle C. McDonough of Cameron, Mo.; two brothers; Howard Owen and N. H. Owen.

Black's Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express our appreciation to our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and beautiful flowers during the illness and death of our beloved brother, William N. Garrett.

Lillie B. King
Sue Threadgill

Last Rites Held Tuesday For Carl French

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Carl French, 58, a resident of Irving for the last sixteen years.

French died Sunday in a Dallas hospital after a long illness.

Born in Hillsboro, Hill County, French came to Dallas in 1929 and lived here for nine years before moving to Irving. He was a retired businessman and once owned a grocery store and a cafe.

Rites were held in the Moore Funeral Chapel in Grand Prairie, with the Rev. Ben Loring officiating. Burial was in Restland Memorial Park in Dallas.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Carl French Jr., of Dallas and Joe French of Galveston; a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Kast of Dallas, and three sisters, Mrs. Rena Meek of Irving, Mrs. Britt Towery of Brownwood and Mrs. Jeff Townsend of Dallas.

20 Aug 54

p1

Honorary Member of
Irving Green Thumb
Club Dies Suddenly

25 June 54
INR p1

MRS. FLOYD C. GAINES

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Cliff Temple Baptist Church in Dallas for Mrs. F. C. Gaines, prominent Church and Club worker who died suddenly Tuesday in a Dallas Hospital.

A native of Commerce, she had lived in Dallas since 1924 and had been active in club and church work, especially in Oak Cliff.

Mrs. Gaines was a member of the Cliff Temple Baptist Church and its Bethany Class.

She served as the first captain of the Daughters of '98 in Dallas.

Mrs. Gaines was a member of the Oak Cliff Society of Fine Arts, the Oak Cliff Council of Garden Clubs and the Out of This World Square Dance Club.

She was a city counselor for the Junior Garden Clubs, a charter member of the Good Earth Garden Club and an honorary member of the Irving Green Thumb Garden Club. She installed Irving's Blue-bonnet Garden Club officers, composed of the 4th and 5th grade students from Keye Elementary School on May 24th.

Survivors are her husband; a son, Floyd C. Gaines Jr. of Irving; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Griffles of Dallas; a brother, Frank S. Griffles Jr. of Houston, and three grandchildren.

Pallbearers were J. H. Rudy and S. S. Montgomery of Irving, and Lee Crum, Hilton Painter, Oscar Chase and Addison Bradford of Dallas.

W. N. Garrett Passes In Veteran's Hospital

Ctsy. Dallas News
W. N. GARRETT

Funeral services for William N. Garrett, 29, were held Tuesday at Black's Funeral Chapel. Garrett, a Navy veteran died Saturday in Veteran's Hospital at Temple, Texas.

He was a graduate of Irving High School and attended Texas Teachers College at Lubbock. He was a member of the East Side Church of Christ.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Lillian B. King of Irving and Mrs. J. G. Treadgill of Dallas; two nephews William H. and James King; and a niece, Virginia Sue King.

Interment was in the Old Kit Cemetary under the direction of Black's Funeral Home. Officiating at the services were James A. Le Fan of Temple and LeRoy Garrett of Dallas.

Pallbearers were H. B. Renner, Jr., Frank Caster, W. J. Lusk, Ben Sieber, Charlie Tutor and Gene Cawthon.

INR p1
29 Jan 54

6 Aug 54

p 8

Mrs. Glover Dies

At Son's Home

Mrs. Addie Jefferson Glover, 77, passed away July 31st at the home of her son, I. G. Glover on Hill-top Drive.

The body was sent to Malvern, Arkansas for funeral services and burial.

Leach Funeral Home of Irving was in charge of arrangements.

Rites Held For Green

Funeral services were held Friday, Oct. 22, for Herbert Milford Green, Sr., 62, brother of H. H. Green of Irving. The rites were at the Edgefield Church of Christ, Dallas, with burial following in Restland Memorial Park.

Mr. Green died Tuesday at his home in Dallas. He was a Mason and a Shriner and past patron of the Templar Chapter No. 374 of the Order of Eastern Star.

At the time of his death, Mr. Green was in the real estate loans and insurance business with his son, H. T. Green, Jr. Other survivors are his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Payton Oliphant of Dallas; two sisters, Mrs. Clem Davis of Dallas and Mrs. George Counts of Mount Pleasant; and a brother, Karl Green, of Dallas.

24 Oct 54

p4

JNR p1 19 Feb 54

Arthur Gribble
Dies Suddenly

A heart attack claimed the life of Arthur A. Gribble of the Shady Groce Community. The 52 year old refrigeration repair man died very suddenly Monday morning.

Funeral services were held at the Shady Grove Baptist Church, Tuesday, with the Rev. O. M. Baldwin officiating. Interment was in Shady Grove Cemetery.

Black's Funeral Home of Irving was in charge of arrangements.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Pauline Gribble; three sons; 5 daughters; five grandchildren; two brothers and three sisters.

Mother of Mrs. Rich

Buried May 16th

21 May 54

INR p 8

Funeral services were held Sun. at the First Methodist Church in Irving for Mrs. Priscilla Wall Griffith, 82 years of age, who passed away May 14th. The Rev. J. W. Lindsey officiated with interment in Dial Cemetery. Leach Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include 3 daughters: Mrs. Gilbert Barber, Eloy, Ariz.; Mrs. Arthur Swindler, Dallas; Mrs. William B. Rich, Irving. Sons: L. M. Wall, Oak Grove, Tex.; H. E. Wall, Ruidosa, Mexico; K. E. Wall, Arkadelphia, Arkansas.

Former Irving Herald Publisher Buried Here

Funeral services were held Sunday at the First Methodist Church of Irving for J. S. Hair, 75 years of age, who passed away at his home, 423 South Iowa Street, April 2nd. The Rev. J. W. Lindsey officiated, assisted by Rev. R. S. McKee.

Before his retirement, Hair was editor-owner of the Irving Herald. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Estelle Hair; a daughter, Mrs. Tom Nycum; a brother and four sisters.

Burial was in Oak Grove Memorial Park under the direction of Black's Funeral Home.

19 Apr 54

p1

30 July 54

pl

Hargrove Rites Held Wednesday

Funeral services were held at the Union Bower Assembly of God Church Wednesday for Mrs. Ida Cecile Hargrove who passed away at her home 114 Penn Street in Union Bower July 19th.

The Rev. Jimmy Weaver and Rev. E. P. Williams conducted the services. Arrangements were in charge of Leach Funeral Home, with burial in Oakland Cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, E. L. Hargrove; father, W. H. Keith, Dallas; an aunt, Mrs. Lillian Keith, Santa Monica, Calif.

42

Mother of Mrs. E. G. Martin Buried Tuesday

Chapel services were held at Black's Funeral Home Tuesday for Mrs. Medora T. Harrington, who made her home in Irving with her daughter Mrs. E. G. Martin, 724 Ballwood. Mrs. Harrington passed away Sunday in a Dallas hospital.

The Rev. R. S. McKee officiated with interment in Restland Memorial Park.

Survivors include her daughters, four grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were J. B. Hubbard, T. S. McCorkley, Charles Rekerdies, Sam Hannay, W. A. Moore and L. B. Dyer.

INR p 3
30 Apr 54

8 Oct 54

P7

Samuel W. Hart Dies Saturday

Samuel Williams Hart passed away Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John H. Ewing, Jr. 205 East Shady Grove Road.

The 86 year old retired merchant had made his home in Irving for the past six years.

Funeral services and interment were in Springfield, Missouri. Arrangements were in charge of Black's Funeral Home.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Ewing; Mrs. Paul A. Justus of Springfield; a sister; eight grandchildren and six great-great grandchildren.

INR p1
19 Feb 54

Old Timer Succumbs To Long Illness

Ctsy. Dallas News
WILL HODGES

Funeral services for one of Irving's old timers, Will A. Hodges were held Monday in the First Baptist Church of Irving. The Rev. F. B. Hamilton and the Rev. Henry Kinkeade officiated. Burial was in Crown Hill Memorial Park under the direction of Black's Funeral Home.

A retired grocer Hodges had lived in the Irving community for thirty-seven years. He operated a grocery store at the corner of Britain and First street many years ago.

Confined to his home since suffering a stroke in 1947 he passed away February 12th.

Hodges was a member of Irving's First Baptist Church, where he served as a deacon and chairman of the board. He was active in Sunday School and Training Union work.

Born in Tupelo, Miss., Hodges moved to Commanche County, Texas with his parents when he was two years old. He married Miss Annie Burton of Glen Rose in 1897 and they moved to Dallas in 1905. They came to Irving in 1917 where they raised a fine family of five sons and two daughters.

Survivors include his wife; five sons, Oran Hodges and Dewey Hodges of Irving, Walter Hodges of Dallas, Jimmy Hodges of Grand Prairie and Ira Hodges of Little Rock, Ark.; two daughters, Mrs. O. C. Green of Irving and Mrs. Robert D. Browning of Fort Worth; eleven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Marvin Browning, Buddy Glover, J. C. Glover, J. W. Green, James May, John Leslie Rodgers and Hayden Rodgers.

A. W. Jackson Dies At Belton

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Heartsfield Funeral Chapel in Belton, Texas for A. W. (Dub) Jackson, 75, who died Saturday morning after an extended illness. The Rev. James Basden officiated. Interment was in Resthaven.

A former resident of Irving, Jackson made his home on Perry Road before moving to Belton about two years ago. He was born in Temple, Texas January 31, 1879, the son of John and Ann Eliza Jackson, pioneer settlers of Bell County. He had lived most of his life in and around Temple.

Palbearers were Jim Bares (Irving); W. O. Newton, Ed Franklin, Dave Jennings, Gordon Surtcliffe and O. B.

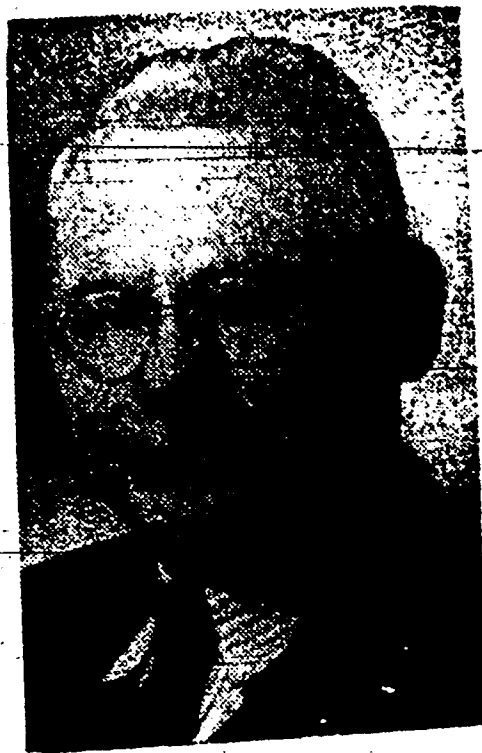

Carroll.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, J. D. of Marble Falls and J. T. of Dallas; two daughters, Mrs. Chris Nelson, Jr. of Corrigan and Mrs. Owen P. Carpenter of Belton; eleven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; a brother, W. H. Jackson of Temple and a number of nieces and nephews.

8 Oct 54
p 5

6 Aug 54
P 1

A. T. Johnston Dies Of Heart Attack

Ctsy. Times Herald
A. T. JOHNSTON
Cotton Broker

A. T. Johnston, 66, past president of the Dallas Cotton Exchange, died of a heart attack Saturday at his home in Irving.

A native of Anniston, Mr. Johnston entered the cotton business in 1922 as bookkeeper for a Galveston cotton firm. Before that, he had been a postal clerk in Galveston and a route carrier at Stamford in West Texas.

He was married at Stamford in 1911 to the former Miss Ann Miller of Stamford.

Mr. Johnston moved to Dallas in 1924 and entered the cotton brokerage business. He was active until the time of his death. His offices were located at 1013 Cotton Exchange Bldg.

A resident of Irving since 1938, he was a member of the First Baptist Church of Irving.

He was a member of the Texas Cotton Association and the American Cotton Shippers Association.

Funeral services were held Monday in the Black Funeral Home. The Rev. Henry H. Kloke, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Irving, officiated. Interment was in Crown Hill Memorial Park in Dallas.

Mr. Johnston is survived by his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Irving D. Porter of Dallas; two sons, A. T. Johnston, Jr., of Irving and Maj. Clarke E. Johnston, United States Air Force, Fort Worth; two sisters, Mrs. Eula Dawson of Elk City, Okla., and Mrs. Sallie Patterson of Haskell; four brothers, R. C. Johnston of Midwest City, Okla., J. T. Johnston of Ardmore, Okla., and C. D. Johnston of Dallas; and two grandchildren.

H. T. Jones Buried At Plano Tuesday

Harry Jones, a 66 year old farmer passed away November 5th in a Dallas hospital.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the George A. Brewer Funeral Chapel in Dallas with the Rev. O. T. Breedlove officiating. Interment was in Plano Cemetery.

Survivors include his son, Harry T. Jones, Jr. of Irving; a daughter, Mrs. Betty June Guinn, Miami, Florida; a brother and four sisters; and four grandchildren.

pallbearers were Harold Williams, Bill Chumley, J. C. McKinney, Roy Chumley, Lozell Chumley and Morris Chapman.

12 Nov 54
P12

Final Rites Held Wed. For J. E. Kelly

Death claimed James Ellis Kelly in a Dallas hospital Tuesday. He had fought a valiant battle against a dreaded disease that had slowly taken its toll.

Funeral services were held at Black's Funeral Chapel Wednesday. Brother Lewis Hogue and Brother Frank Dunn officiated. Interment was Laurel Land under the direction of Black's Funeral Home.

A prominent figure in ~~the city~~ Kelly had lived here for twenty years. He was co-owner of the Kelly-Jones Insulation Company in addition to many outside interests. He was owner of the Lone Star Game Ranch and the White Star Farm. He was a breeder of fine race horses and game cocks.

The 46 year old executive was active almost until his death. He learned of his tragic illness around Thanksgiving.

He is survived by his wife, Lavada; a son, Johnny Kelly; two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Johnson, Irving and Mrs. Gayle Oler of Quinlan, Texas; and a host of friends.

Pallbearers were Bert Fuller, Ral Hoskins, Robert Wells, Rodney Williams, Vincent Piazza and Gabby Hall.

INR p1
5 Feb 54

Requiem High Mass
For Martin Kelly

*INR p 1
19 mar 54*

Ctsy. Timer Herald

REQUIEM HIGH MASS for Martin Richard Kelly, 65, director of the Dallas district of Texas Employment Commission, was celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Monday in St. Luke's Catholic Church at Irving, followed by burial in Calvary Hill Cemetery. Rosary was recited at 8 p.m. Sunday in Crane-Longley Chapel, 6534 E. Northwest Hwy. Mr. Kelly, who lived in Irving died Friday in a Dallas hospital.

Last Rites For Mrs. Keyser, 82

Mrs. Willie Fern Keyser, eighty-two years old, of 600 Fenimore Street, passed away Tuesday in a Dallas hospital.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday by the Rev. Henry Kinkeade and the Rev. F. B. Hamilton at the First Baptist Church of Irving. Interment was in Restland Memorial Park under the direction of Black's Funeral Home.

~~Mrs. Keyser is survived~~ by her husband, John Henry Keyser; a brother, R. V. Hemphill of Houston, and two sisters, Mrs. Jess Blair of Gulf Camp, Texas, and Mrs. W. V. Thompson of Los Angeles, California.

Pallbearers were Earl Koepf, Charlie Warren, Norman Sutherland, Barney Crabb, Carl Easter and Lloyd Hodgekiss.

29 Oct 54
p 2

Mrs. J. H. Shropshire's
Mother Buried Monday

MRS. IDA KING

INR p1
12 Feb 54

Funeral services were held Monday for one of Oak Cliff's colorful pioneer residents, Mrs. Ida King, 79. She had been a Dallas resident for thirty-five years.

She made her home at 723 Oak Cliff Blvd. and was an active member and worker in Cliff Temple Baptist Church for many years.

She was the mother of State Representative Tom King.

Dr. Wallace Bassett, pastor of Cliff Temple officiated at the final rites. Burial was in Laurel Land.

Other survivors include another son, Robert T. King of Eunice, N.M.; three daughters, Mrs. Edna Vamvakas and Mrs. Beulah Dial, both of Dallas, and Mrs. Eunice Shropshire of Irving; two brothers, J. E. Short of Pine Bluff, Ark., and W. J. Short of Longview; a sister, Mrs. Ola Hill of South Gate, Calif.; ten grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Graveside Service For Kolenovsky Infant

The three day old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kolenovsky, 109 East Ireland Drive, passed away Wednesday at a Dallas hospital. Judith was born July 4th. Graveside services were held Thursday at Grove Hill Cemetery under the direction of Black's Funeral Home. The Rev. J. W. Biggs officiated.

Survivors include the parents, a brother, Michael Arnold, and a sister, Anna Marie.

9 July 54
INR p 3

Mrs. B. T. Lancaster Passed Away Wednesday

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Bert Lancaster are in charge of Black's Funeral Home. A resident of Dallas and Irving for the past forty years, Mrs. Lancaster died at her home on Rogers Rd. Wednesday night.

She had worked as secretary of the Dallas Petroleum Club, the Maracalbo Oil Corporation and Sims Oil Company.

She is survived by her husband; three sisters, Mrs. Mulkey Patterson of Dallas; Miss Iva Prachar of Irving and Mrs. J. H. Ballew of Clayton, New Mexico; and a brother, Ed Prachar of Walsh, Colorado.

INR p4

5 Feb 54

Service Station Operator Dies Of Heart Attack

Funeral services were held Friday at Black's Funeral Chapel for Charles Raymond Lee, 49, who died suddenly at his home 1933 Pembroke.

Lee, operator of the Cooper No. 2 Service Station was apparently in good health when he closed his business on Wednesday night. He awakened at 4 a.m. Thursday morning suffering a heart attack and died almost instantly.

He had lived in Irving for six years.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mabel Lee; a son, Charles Raymond Lee, Jr.; mother, Mrs. Ida Lee; two brothers, Hubert O. and E. O. Lee; three sisters, Mrs. George Gambie, Mrs. B. W. Rodgers, Mrs. Smiley Benson; and one grandchild.

9 Dec 54

p 8

Final Rites Held Here

The Rev. J. W. Lindsey, pastor of the First Methodist church of which Mrs. Throckmorton was a member, and the Rev. Grady May of Farmersville, conducted the services and Leach Funeral Home directed. Interment was in Oak Grove Memorial Park.

Survivors include her husband, H. A. Throckmorton, a retired farmer and resident of Irving since 1921; two sons, T. F. and M. E. Gilpin, of Irving; a brother, Eddie Jones, Newcastle; two grandsons and two great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were M. L. Greer, Ra Neely, Leo Mapes,

Kenneth Hoyle, A. L. Andrews and J. P. Kriese.

Mrs. Throckmorton resided on Union Bower Road.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist Church for Mrs. Annie Gilpin Throckmorton, 84, who died Tuesday.

19 Dec 54

p6

L. A. LovelettDies Suddenly

Thursday services were held at Black's Funeral Chapel for Leonard Albert Lovelett who died suddenly at his home on Belt Line Road Monday.

An employee of the Hitchcock Artificial Limb & Brace Company, Lovelett had lived near Irving for the past nine years. He was a veteran of World War II.

The Rev. E. A. Goldsmith conducted the services. Interment was in Ash Creek Cemetery at Azle, Texas.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Opal Lovett; a daughter, Judith Lynn Lovett; and a sister, Mrs. John Malochnick of Chicago, Ill.

28 May 54

INR p 1

24 Sept 54
p1

Clay, Dallas News
MRS. ETTA MANGUM

Chapel Rites For Mrs. Etta Mangum

Funeral services for Mrs. Etta Mangum, 80, a Dallas County resident for seventy-three years, were held Friday in the Black Funeral Chapel.

Mrs. Mangum, a resident of Irving for ten years, died Sept. 15th at her home following a year's illness. She was born in Murray County, Tenn., and moved to Dallas with her parents when she was seven years old. She was a member of the Britain Road Baptist Church.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. A. M. Cuthren of Irving, Mr. E. M. Charles and Mrs. D. H. Montgomery, both of Dallas; seven sons, the Rev. I. D. Mangum, Herbert Mangum, Albert Mangum, A. J. Mangum, Willie Mangum, Paul Mangum and Rufus Mangum, Sr., all of Irving; a sister, Mrs. Fannie Davison of Dallas; twenty one grandchildren - and eighteen great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Lester B. Collins, pastor of the Lovedale Baptist Church and the Rev. C. R. McDaniel, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Walnut Hill, officiated at the services. Burial was in Grove Hill Memorial Park.

INR p 6
26 Mar 54

Mother of Mrs. Hild
Dies in California

Mrs. Harry G. Hild left Thurs-
for Kansas City, Missouri to attend funeral services for her mother, Mrs. Carrie V. Martin
who died Monday in Los Angeles
California.

Mrs. Martin, 93, had been confined to her bed for the past two years. She spent several weeks in Irving with her daughter before her confinement.

Services were set for Friday
Interment will be in Marshall,
Missouri.

Chapel Services For Traffic Victim Eugene McKeehan

Malcom Eugene McKeehan was killed Sunday morning in a tragic automobile accident just one month before he was to have received his degree from Arlington State College.

Funeral services were held Monday at Black's Funeral Chapel with the Rev. George Wendt, officiating. Interment was in Cottonwood Cemetery at Cottonwood, Texas where graveside services were held.

McKeehan's car apparently went out of control as he negotiated a curve in the road near Mountain Creek Lake on Florine Drive. The car, a total loss, apparently rolled over three times, according to investigating officers, L. B. Lagow and Capt. Ray Lunday. The accident occurred almost an hour before the body of McKeehan was discovered. His companion, Miss Carey Irene Baley, a student at North Texas State College, called for help. Two fishermen heard her frantic cries. She was unconscious when help arrived and was identified by a bracelet on her wrist. Miss Baley is in a critical condition at Parkland Hospital with spinal injuries, a fractured skull and several fractured ribs.

Her parents said Sunday night that she had been working for the Western Union in Fort Worth during the summer and that she had three or four dates with young McKeehan. McKeehan who resided on Perch Hill Road is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim E. McKeehan; two brothers, Delrae and James McKeehan, Irving; ten sisters, Mrs. Nadine Jones, Irving; Mrs. Joyce Lorene Bible, Grand Prairie; Mrs. Jimmie Kelly, Garden City, Texas; Mrs. Wanda Holloway, Irving; Mrs. Allene Wallace, Grand Prairie; Peggie, Mary Ellen, Billie Helen, Margaret and Yvonne McKeehan, all of Irving.

27 Aug 54

P12

Mother of Mrs. Hild ~~END~~
Dies in California March 26 1964

Mrs. Harry G. Hild left Thurs-
for Kansas City, Missouri to attend funeral services for her mother, Mrs. Carrie V. Martin
who died Monday in Los Angeles
California.

Mrs. Martin, 93, had been confined to her bed for the pas-
two years. She spent several weeks
in Irving with her daughter before her confinement.

Services were set for Friday.
Interment will be in Marshall,
Missouri.

Meteer Rites Held Saturday

A heart attack claimed the life of Guy E. Meteer who died suddenly at his home 422 West Lively on December 9. Mrs. Meteer and the maid found him dead in the bathroom when they investigated a "falling sound."

Mr. Meteer, 63 years of age, had suffered a heart condition for some time.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Leach Funeral Chapel with Father Paul Charcutt conducting the

16 Dec 54
p7

Masonic Rites Held For E. F. Moffett

Funeral services for Ervin Frank Moffett, age 70 years, were held in Irving January 2nd at Black's Funeral Chapel. Dr. W. A. Welch, pastor of the East Dallas Christian Church officiated. Burial was in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Moffett passed away at his home, 212 East Fifth on Wednesday morning December 30th. East Dallas Masonic Lodge No. 1200 held graveside services.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Irene Moffett; two daughters and two sons; two brothers and a sister.

INR p 4

8 Jan 54

30 July 54

p1

Polio Claims Life Of 27 Year Old

Irving Man Tuesday

Rosary was recited at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Crane-Longley Funeral Home for Robert W. Moore 27, of Irving, Dallas County's second polio fatality of the year.

Moore died Tuesday night in Parkland Hospital, where he was admitted as a polio patient Monday.

Funeral mass was sung at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at St. Luke's Catholic Church in Irving, where Moore was a member. The Rev. Paul Charcut was celebrant.

Moore was buried in Calvary Hill Cemetery.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Moore had lived in the Dallas area eight years. His home was 619 Westwood in Irving. He was a partner in the Bell Rubber Company of Arcadia Park.

Surviving are his wife; one son, James Daniel Moore of Irving, and Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore of Dallas.

Heart Ailment Claims Life of Pat Moran

A long illness from a heart condition claimed the life of a colorful figure in law enforcement circles.

Pat Moran, 1212 East Shady Grove Road passed away in a Dallas hospital Tuesday morning.

Christened Kenter S. Moran, the jovial policeman was affectionately known as "Pat" to all his friends and co-workers.

The 55 year old veteran served on the Dallas police force eight years and on the Irving force four years. He served two terms of office in the Dallas County Sheriff's office.

Advised by his doctor to retire, he had worked occasionally in recent months as courtesy driver for Triangle Motors.

Funeral services were held Thursday at Black's Funeral Home, with the Rev. Henry Kinkeade officiating.

INR p1

5 Feb 54

INR p1
12 Feb 54

K. S. MORAN
PAT MORAN — Irving Police officer and a member of the Dallas Police Force and Sheriff's office was buried Feb 11th. Services were under the direction of Black's Funeral Home with the Rev. Henry Kinker officiating.
A heart ailment claimed the life of the 55 year old Irving man, who resided at 1212 East Shady Grove. He is survived by his wife.

Last Rites Held For

Mrs. Marion Mouer

Funeral services were held Sunday at Leach Feneral Chapel for Mrs. "Pete" Mouer, who passed away July 15th. Formerly of Irving, Mrs. Mouer resided at 923 North Ravinia at the time of her death.

The Rev. P. S. McKee, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Irving officiated. Interment was in Oak Grove Memorial Park.

Survivors include her husband C. S. "Pete" Mouer; daughters Mrs. D. W. Ochterbeck, Bakersfield, Calif.; Mrs R. B. Bauer, Hollywood, Calif.; and Mrs D Phillips of Dallas.

23 July 54

pb