Kansas Visitor Dies Suddenly

Just a few hours after her arrival in Irving to visit her son, Mrs. Emma Wahlstrom of Kansas City, Missouri, died suddenly of a heart attack.

The body was sent to Kansas City for burial by Hack's Funeral Home.

A.L. Wahlstrom of Irving and G.E. Wahlstrom of Kansas City; three brothers; Survivors include her husband, Guy G. Wahlstrom of Kansas City; two sons, one sister; and three grandchildren.

12 Nov 54
p12
Rites Conducted For

Albert Walker, Monday

Services were held Monday at Black's Funeral Chapel for Albert Tandy Walker, who passed away at his home on Hilltop Drive, February 9th.

The Rev. J. W. Lindsey, pastor of the First Methodist Church officiated. Interment was in Restland Memorial Park.

Walker, 63, was a Dallas Post Office employee. Born in Menno, Arkansas, he moved to Dallas County with his parents, as a youth. He was a clerk in the "out-going" station of the Dallas office for more than thirty years.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Lyndon Walker of Plano; and James Walker of Dallas; and four grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Floyd Daniel, Waymond Carpenter, John Daniel; Leo Lynes; E. J. Marcom and S. C. Walker.
A. J. Ward Killed; Sammy Fuller Critical
In Wednesday Head-On Collision

Alvin J. Ward, 611 Fenmore, died en route to Parkland Hospital, following a head-on collision with a 17-year-old Irving boy, Sammy Fuller. Fuller's condition was listed as critical. He suffered a deep face cut, chest injuries, broken ankle and broken arm. Fuller resides with his mother, Mrs. Sid Fuller at 829 King Avenue.

The accident occurred on Irving Blvd. just east of the Elm River bridge. Deputy Sheriff C. G. St. Clair said Ward apparently lost control of his car while passing another vehicle on the three lane thoroughfare. Ward was traveling west.

Ward was employed by McCollister Chevrolet Company in Dallas.

Survivors include his wife; daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Alvin Ward; two granddaughters, all four of Irving; two brothers, Lloyd Ward and Stanley Ward, both of Dallas, and three sisters, Mrs. Belle Colwell and Mrs. John Knight, both of Dallas, and Mrs. Guy Bisbee of Oklahoma City.

Funeral arrangements will be handled by Sparkman-Brand, 2115 Ross.
Accident Victim
Buried Friday

ALVIN J. WARD

Funeral services for Alvin J. Ward were held Friday January 29th at the Sparkman-Brand Chapel in Dallas. The Rev. L. C. Craig officiated. Interment was in Restland Memorial Park.

Ward, 53, was killed in a head-on collision on Irving Blvd. Jan. 27th.

He resided with his family at 611 Fenmore. He was assistant parts manager for McCollister Chevrolet Co. in Dallas.

Pallbearers will be W. W. Calhoun, K. P. Goodson, W. H. Bill Landers, Andrew S. Prim, E. Claude Simmons and K. G. Wellman.
J. L. Weaver Dies Suddenly in Field

Death claimed Joseph Lawrence Weaver last week as he mowed the grass on some acreage he owned west of town. He had apparently been adjusting an attachment to the mowing machine when he was stricken. His body was discovered lying beside the machine, by a neighbor.

The 60-year-old Post Office employee had been in ill-health for some time. He had been a resident of Irving for the past eighteen years, making his home at 416 West Irving Blvd.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Black's Funeral Chapel with the Rev. J. W. Lindsey officiating. Interment was in Laurel Land.

Survivors include: his wife, Hazel; a son, Larry, his mother, Mrs. J. R. Weaver; two brothers, Robert and Joe Weaver, both of Dallas; a nephew, Bobby Weaver.

Pallbearers were J. C. Revier, Jr., Charley Revier, Ralph Revier, Roger Revier, P. D. Russell, and Bobby Weaver.
THIRD MAN KILLED

Father And Son Die
In Tragic Air Collision

Lloyd Whitman
Father of Mrs.

Henderson Passes

C. O. Williams, 79, of Emhouse, Texas died at 9:30 Sunday morning at the Navarro Clinic in Corsicana.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church in Emhouse on Monday at 3 p.m.

Death claimed Mr. Williams after a brief illness. He suffered a cerebral hemorrhage on Thursday and died three days later. He had been a resident of Emhouse for forty-three years.

Survivors include: his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Bill Henderson of Irving; one son, C. C. Williams of Ruston, La.; two grandsons, C. C. Williams, Jr., of Ruston, La.; and Dr. Allen Williams, of New Orleans, La.; one grand-daughter, Mrs. Arthur Ellis, Dallas; four great-grandchildren and other relatives.
Final Rites Are Held

Mrs. Willie Adline Williams, 78, passed away Monday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Lelia Barkhurst, 214 West 8th Street. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Truitt Funeral Chapel at Stephenville.

She is also survived by a son, W. D. Williams, of Kilgore.
Chapel Rites Held For J.B. Woodhead

Rites were held Tuesday at Black's Funeral Chapel for Joseph B. Woodhead, 87, of 1221 South Britain who passed away Sunday after a long illness.

He was the father of Mrs. L. C. Lehmburg, a teacher in the Irving schools. A resident of Dallas for twenty-six years, he had made his home in Irving about a year. He was a retired building contractor.

Woodhead was born in Malad City, Idaho. He had been a member of the Highland Park Methodist Church for twenty-six years.

Bishop C. C. Seeceman and the Rev. William Penn conducted the funeral services.

Entombment was in Hillcrest Mausoleum.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Nora Elizabeth Woodhead; two daughters, Mrs. L. C. Lehmburg, Irving, and Mrs. Thompson Tate of Williamsburg, Missouri; and six grandchildren.
Woodward Rites

Held Thursday

James Richard Woodward, 77 year old father of Mrs. J. M. Arnold, 601 N. Delaware, was buried Thursday in Oakland Cemetery.

Services were held at Black's Funeral chapel in Irving, with Rev. Henry Kinkeade officiating. Woodward passed away Thursday.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. R. A. Cole of Dallas and Mrs. J. M. Arnold of Irving; a brother, A. O. Woodward of Ft. Worth; a sister, Mrs. Ada Isabell of Colgate, Okla.; five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Leon Cole, Raymond Cole Jr., Richard Cole, Tommy Cole, Vernon Arnold and W. L. Burk.