Barrett Rites Held

Funeral services were held Saturday for George Harrison Barrett who died Friday at the home of his grandson, Dr. Barrett M. Thompson. He had made his home in Irving for the past 9 years.

Mr. Barrett celebrated his 95th birthday on October 25. A retired machinery manufacturer, Mr. Barrett, had retired some years ago. He resided in Meadville, Pennsylvania before coming to Irving.

Born in 1860 at St. Jo, Missouri, he was the youngest son of a saw mill operator, whose extensive operations were recognized throughout the country. The family came from England and settled at Lake Erie in the 1800's.

Last rites were read by the Rev. J.W. Lindsey, pastor of the First Methodist Church. The services were held in Leach Funeral Chapel, with interment in Hillcrest Memorial Park.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Mable Thompson of Irving and Mrs. Gladys Draut of Dallas; one son, Harrison W. Barrett of Lima, Ohio; 6 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were X.R. Gill, Walter Courtney, L. H. Johnson, Jr., Winston Decherd, M.R. Parks and Fred Govall.

Barrow Services

INR
15 Sept 55

P1

Funeral services were held Monday at the First Baptist Church for Elvis Wayne Barrow who died Sunday afternoon at his home, 1034 Hudson Street. The Rev. Henry Kinkeade officiated, with burial in Oak Grove Memorial Park

Barrow, a native of Ft. Worth had lived in Irving for the past eight years and was a member of the First Baptist Church of Irving. He was a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Carine; a son, Gary Wayne Barrow; parents, Mr & Mrs Maxie Barrow; and a brother, Norman Dixon Barrow, all of Ft. Worth.

Lifelong Resident Dies Suddenly

Chapel services were held Monday at Leach Funeral Home for Dan Barton, 58, who died suddenly Sunday at his home on Sowers Road. Barton was born and reared near Sowers, and made his home there until his death. He was an employee of the Texas Company for a number of years and later operated a grocery store at Sowers. He was also an employee of Leach Funeral Home. The Rev. Leonard Mansen, pastor of the First Christian Church of Irving conducted the last rites and burial was in the Sowers Cemetery. Members of the Irving—Masonic Lodge held services at the graveside.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ruby Barton; a daughter, Mrs. Bobby Haley; a son, Dan Barton, Jr.; and two grandchildren, all of Irving; sisters, Mrs. Mary Boling, Mrs. C.T. Lucas and Mrs. Irene Wood, all of Irving; Mrs. Bea Boling, Houston; Mrs. Jehnle Tompkins, Mrs. H. A. Foster and Mrs. Fannie McBride, of Dallas; and a brother, Bost Barton.

Pallbearers were B. Rutledge, Charley Hutchinson, Ben Huffines, John Andrews, Morris Taylor and Loyd Brown.

DEATH VEHICLE---A high speed collision with a bridge abutment on the Grapevine Highway at midnight Sunday proved fatal to James Carl Evans, 17-year-old Smithfield youth. Here are two views of the car taken after the vehicle was moved to Pat Parks' Wrecking yard. The engine was jammed into the back seat, and the steering wheel pushed against the top of the car. The youth was a hot-rod enthusiast, and had special exhausts on his car. En route to the accident scene Jim Black overturned in his ambulance after the rough street between the end of pavement on Britain and Highway 183. He was not injured, and little damage was done to the ambulance.---News Staff Photo.
