

W.R. Hammond Dies Suddenly

Funeral services were held Saturday in Black's Funeral Chapel for William Riford Hammond, 42, who lived at 2708 Yorkshire Dr. Rev. Jack McGee of Plymouth Park Methodist Church officiated. The remains were taken to Kosse, Tex., for burial. Mr. Hammond died suddenly on July 29.

His survivors include his wife, Mrs. Elaine Hammond; three daughters, Carol Hammond, Kay Hammond, and Jo Anne Hammond; one son Bill Hammond, his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Hammond of Kosse, and a brother, Wendell Hammond of Clayton, N.M.

The deceased was a furniture salesman for a manufacturer.

IMR
4 Aug 1960
pg 5

Mrs. Harkins

Rites Read

Funeral services for Mrs. Hattie Wells Harkins, 70, of 2414 West 11th, were held Monday at Black's Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Robert M. Walker officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove Memorial Park.

Following an illness of more than six years, Mrs. Harkins died Saturday in Dallas Methodist Hospital.

Born in Carthage, Texas, she moved to Wilbarger County in 1913 where she taught school until her marriage to L.H. Harkins in 1915. The family moved to Irving in 1951. She was a member of the First Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Floy Lyn Maiscott of Fenton, Mo., and Mary Harkins of Irving; five sons, Wm. Kelly and Jack of Irving, L.H. Jr. of Nigeria, Africa, Darrell of Carencro, La., and Robert of LaPlace, La.; two sisters, Mrs. Mittie Killingsworth of Dallas and Mrs. Sallie Piller of Longview; and fifteen grandchildren.

DMR

17 Mar, 1960

pg 11

Rites Held For Former Irvingite

Funeral services were held Tuesday in Gladewater for L. F. Harris, 71, retired hardwareman and former resident of Irving.

Mr. Harris died Sunday in a Gladewater hospital after an illness of about two weeks. He was the father of L. L. Harris 747 Hartin Circle.

A native of Carrollton, Ark., Mr. Harris later lived in Ranger and then Gladewater where he was one of the founders of Spencer - Harris Machine Tool Co. He later lived in Irving and then returned to Gladewater in 1947 and was associated with a hardware firm until he retired two years ago.

A Baptist and a Mason, he was also a member of Dallas Hella Temple.

Services were held in Stokes Funeral Home at Gladewater, with the Rev. Irby Bates officiating. Burial was in Smith Cemetery near Palmer.

Survivors include his widow, the one son, two daughters and four sisters.

LMR

17 Mar 1960

pg 5

Hayden Rites Pending in Grand Prairie

Funeral arrangements are pending at Moore Funeral Home in Grand Prairie for Walter Hayden, 82, who moved to Grand Prairie last year after living in Irving since 1918.

Mr. Hayden died Monday in Parkland Hospital.

Born in Bowie County in 1878, he had worked for a railroad and as a farm laborer. He had no relatives and had for the past 17 years lived with the J.W. Smalley family. The Smalleys are also former Irving residents.

Irving Daily News Texan

27 Oct 1960

pg 1 (F.P)

Haynes Rites

Set Today

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. today for Albert E. Haynes, 817 E. Third, in Lamar and Smith Funeral Chapel in Dallas. Interment will be in Grove Hill Cemetery in Dallas. Rev. R. W. Deyo will officiate.

Mr. Haynes, who was 45, died Tuesday in a Dallas hospital. He was a plumber and had lived in Irving approximately two years. He was born in Wichita Falls.

Survivors are a son, Jimmie Don Haynes of Houston; sisters, Mrs. Hannah Leberbacher of Irving; Mrs. Lucy McBean, Ohio; a brother, Ed Haynes, Dallas; and two grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be H. G. McClaughry, C. R. Hall, Ellis J. Baker, K. J. Leuebacher, G. E. Vance and James B. Story.

Irving News-Tribune

20 Oct 1960

pg 11

- MARY FAYE HELTON

Last Rites Today for Mary Helton

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. today in Sherwood Park Baptist Church for Mary Faye Helton, 14, who died at her home at 615 Fenmore Wednesday.

Cause of death is as yet undetermined, according to Irving Police Chief C. J. Wirasnik. An autopsy was performed but the report was unavailable.

Rev. Morton May will officiate at funeral services and interment will be in Oak Grove Memorial Park.

Born in Dallas, Miss Helton had lived in Dallas until about four years ago, when she moved to Irving. She had attended Bowie Junior High School and was a member of Sherwood Park Baptist Church.

Survivors are her father and mother, two sisters, two brothers and grandparents.

*DN Tex
16 Dec 1960*

pg 1

Autopsy Shows Death from Natural Cause

Police Chief C. J. Wirasnik said that a preliminary autopsy report in the death of Mary Faye Helton, 14, who died at her home Wednesday, indicated that the cause of ~~death was a combination of~~ pneumonia and sugar diabetes.

LN Tex

18 Dec 1960

pg 1

L. Claude Herring Dies Here

L. Claud Herring died at his home 514 Hasding, Irving Texas Tuesday.

Mr. Herring was a retired farmer and contractor and had lived in Irving for 33 years. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Irving.

Mr. Herring is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie Laura Herring, two daughters, Florence and Nina J. a large number of neices and nephews.

Services were to be held at the First Baptist Church Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. Burial in Sowers Cemetery. Pallbearers were to be Mr. Herring's nephews. Arrangements by Black's Funeral Home, Irving.

L MR

10 Mar. 1960

pg 14

Mrs. High's Rites Read

Mrs. Alma High, 57 of 716 East 3rd, died at St. Paul Hospital Sunday.

Mrs. High is survived by one daughter, Mrs. John S. Cowart, one son, T. C. High Jr., both of Irving. One sister, Mrs. Callie Ferguson, Qit-ague, and one Brother, H. L. Bummgartner.

Services were held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Black's Funeral Chapel. Black's Funeral Home is in charge. Pallbearers were, Clifton McCraig, J. L. Banister, J. R. Walters, L. F. Pairett, C. F. Coats and Howard Dilord.

IMR
28 Jan 1960
pg 12

Irvingite's Father Dies

Funeral services were held Saturday at Elk Point, S.D., for Edward Holden, 79, father of Mrs. Glenn Sayles, 1627 William Brewster.

~~Mr. Holden died Tuesday.~~
He was a retired farmer. Other survivors include his widow and one son, Edsel Holden of Elk Point.

D. M. Zevan
27 Oct 1960
pg 3

Irvingite's Rites Held On Monday

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Charles Milton Hollingsworth, 53, who died Sunday of a heart attack. He lived at 600 E. 3rd St.

Mr. Hollingsworth, a resident of Irving several years, was a car salesman for Vandergriff's in Irving.

Services were held at the White Oak Springs Baptist Church with burial in the White Oak's Cemetery under the direction of Black's Funeral Home.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Ida Bernice Hollingsworth; two sons, Earl W. Hollingsworth and Charles H. Hollingsworth, all of Irving; one sister, three brothers and five grandchildren.

OK Jay

27 Dec 1960

pg 1

Final Rites Set Friday For Mrs. Holt

Last rites will be held Friday in Leach's Funeral Chapel for Mrs. Trudie Holt of Bedford, Tarrant County, who died unexpectedly at her home Tuesday. Services will begin at 2 p.m. Interment will be in Restland.

Only survivor is a daughter, Mrs. Alma Stark of Irving.

DM Lev
22 Dec 1960
pg 1

Mrs. Hopkins Funeral Set For Friday

Funeral services will be held Friday at Restland's Wildwood Chapel at 2 p.m. for Mrs. Mary D'Olier Hopkins, 3213 Carpenter Rd. Rev. Blanchard Boyer will officiate. Cremation to follow. Survivors include sons: Edward H. Hopkins, Passiac, N.J.; William L. Hopkins, Irving; two granddaughters; brothers, Frances W. D'Olier, Moorestown, N.J. Charles D'Olier, Pennsylvania; and a sister Mrs. Catherine Maxfield of California.

JMR
21 Apr. 1960
pg 1

Irvingite Dies

Funeral arrangements are pending at Black's Funeral Home for Archie Houston Hoskins, 2424 W. Shady Grove Road, who died unexpectedly Tuesday afternoon.

I N Jey

23 Nov 1960

pg 1

Hoskins Rites To Be Held Friday a.m.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday for Archie Houston Hoskins, 58, in First Baptist Church. Rev. Henry Kinkeade will officiate. Interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Mr. Hoskins died suddenly of a heart attack Tuesday afternoon enroute to a local clinic. He had been a resident of Irving for 19 years and was a member of First Baptist Church. He was an employe of a motor parts business as a receiving clerk. He lived at 2424 W. Shady Grove Rd.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lucille Hoskins; a son Billy Hoskins of Enid, Okla.; his mother, Mrs. Allen A. Hoskins; sisters, Mrs. Nancy Seay, Mrs. Roy Waterman, Mrs. Harvey Keeler and Mrs. James McElyea; two brothers, Fred Hoskins and John Hoskins, and three grandchildren.

Irving Masonic Lodge 1218 will conduct graveside services.

DM Jay
24 Nov 1960
pg 1