Gunshot Victim's Funeral Is Held

A verdict of self-inflicted death was returned Monday in the shooting of Bobby Edward Kile 24, who lived at 821 Allen Dr. Judge Glen Davies held the inquest.

Asst. Police Chief Leon Powers said the police department received the call at 10:34 a.m. Monday. The body was found in a bedroom of the home, and a .22 pump rifle was found beside the bed. Kile evidently had held the rifle up to his chest and discharged it with his toe, Powers said. He was shot in the heart.

Mrs. Kile said her husband previously had stated that he was going to kill himself. He was discharged from the Navy about three months ago.

He was the father of a 14 months old daughter, Linda Marie. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Kile, survive, along with a sister, Miss Nora Kile; four brothers, Clovia Kile, Willard Kile, Monroe Kile, and Willis Kile.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at Faith Temple Baptist Church. Burial was in Oak Grove.
