

Funeral Today
For Wade
Of Irving

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today for William T. Wade, 59, who died Wednesday in a Dallas hospital. Mr. Wade was the brother of Mrs. E. G. Vanmeter, Roy Wade and Aaron Wade, all of Irving.

Rev. Robert H. Keys, pastor of Galilean Baptist Church, will officiate at the services in Lamar and Smith Funeral Chapel, 800 W. Jefferson in Dallas. Burial will be in Restland.

Other survivors include his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Wade; mother, Mrs. W. N. Wade; sister, Miss Inez Wade, all of Dallas; brothers Paul Wade of Washington and Austin Wade of California.

J.M. Jey

4 Nov 1960

Pg 1 (F.P.)

Rev. Walker's Brother Dies

C. O. Walker, brother of Rev. Robert Walker of the First Methodist Church died in California on July 4. Burial will be in Antoine, Arkansas.

Walker's death was attributed during his years in service.

Rev. Walker and his mother flew to his bedside Sunday morning.

IMR
7 July 1960
pg 14

Eleven Year Old Dies

Funeral services were read at a Requiem Mass at 12 noon Monday in St. Luke's Catholic Church for Randall David Walker, 2052 Irving Blvd. Randall passed away

Texas. Recitation of the Rosary was held at 8 p.m. Sunday in Black's Funeral Chapel. Interment was in Calvary Hill. Pall Bearers were: Roy Renfro, John Keeton, Manfred Sargent, Bob Ross and Frank Neal.

Randall played on the Jack Halsey T Shirt Little League team.

DAVID WALKER

Friday at the age of 11. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Walker, brothers; Wesley and Timothy all of Irving; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones, Dallas, S. E. Walker, Cooper,

IMR
31 Mar 1960

pg 16

Rites Held For Mother Of Irvingite

Funeral services for Mrs. Thomas E. Warden, mother of Guy E. Warden of Irving, were held at the Church of Christ in Fort Worth Sunday at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Warden, 67, passed away Saturday in a hospital and was buried in Oakland Cemetery.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Jerry A. Myrick of Fort Worth; two sons, Guy and Jim Tom Warden of Abilene; her mother, Mrs. Sally Wharton of Gary, Okla.; two brothers Elmo Wharton of Gary and Jim Wharton of Amarillo, and two sisters, Mrs. Ima Kidd of Gary and Mrs. C.C. Gruhkey of Amarillo.

DN Tex
20 Dec 1960

Pg 2

Brother of Irvingite Dies Monday

Lewis-- F. Wells, 58, brother of Mrs. S.L. Nelson of Irving died enroute to a local hospital late Monday after a heart attack.

Funeral services will be held at the Weiland - Merritt Chapel 2909 Live Oak at 3:30 p.m. today.

Rev. Bill Morgan Smith of Grace Methodist Church will officiate. Wells had been a Dallas resident for the past five years. He was a native of Leesburg and a member of the Baptist Church.

FN Tex
16 Nov 1960
pg 1

Last Rites To Be Read

The sister-in-law of William Whitehouse, manager of The Hub Store in Irving, died early Wednesday morning in Parkland Hospital. Services were scheduled to be held today at 11 a.m. for Mrs. Thelma K. Whitehouse in the Live Oak Chapel of Welland-Merritt Funeral Home. Rabbi Gerald J. Klein was to officiate. Interment to be in Emanuel cemetery.

Mrs. Whitehouse, who resided at 2423 Timber View in Dallas, is survived by her husband, Sanford Whitehouse; a son, Marc Whitehouse, a daughter, Ferne Whitehouse, all of Dallas; her mother, Mrs. Eva Kapler, and a sister, Mrs. Ruth Yagonick, both of Miami, Fla.

JNR
15 Sept 1968
Pg 5

Rites Held For Sister Of Irvingite

Funeral services were held Monday morning at Italy for Mrs. Burley Wiles, sister of Ray Griffiths of Irving. Mrs. Wiles, 64, a native and life-long resident of Italy, is also survived by her husband, two daughters, three other brothers, three sisters and three grandchildren.

Services were held in the Central Baptist Church in Italy, where she was a member. Burial was in Italy Cemetery.

LMR
2 June 1960
pg 5

Rites Held For Victim Of Gunshot

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. today for Jacqueline Alveda Williams, 7 - year - old Irving girl who was accidentally killed by gunshot at 9:30 p.m. Monday.

Services will be at Black's Funeral Home chapel, with the Rev. Ira Galloway and the Rev. Grady May officiating.

The child was killed in an accident at the Williams home at 3009 New Haven when her 11 - year - old brother, James Morgan Williams, Jr., ~~was holding a nine-shot .22-caliber pistol~~ which he thought was unloaded because the portion of the cylinder showing was empty. He was in a bedroom when he pulled the trigger of the pistol and the bullet traveled into the living room and struck her behind an ear, passed through her head and struck her arm, which was under her head as she lay on a couch.

The child was a first grade student at the Rochelle School. Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan Williams, Sr., two sisters, Johnnie Lue and Janette Williams; the one brother, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Darnell of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Riley of Irving.

JNR
31 Mar 1960
pg 1

Asphyxiation Ruled in Death Of Infant Boy

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip L. Williams, 921 McCord, died Saturday morning at home. Judge Glenn Davies ruled death by asphyxiation due to pneumonia. The baby, Mark Dartsanian Williams, was born Sept. 14. The body was transferred to Clarksville, Tex., for funeral arrangements and burial.

D M Tex.

15 Nov 1960

pg 1

Irvingite's Mother Dies

Funeral services were held Tuesday in Dallas for Mrs. Lizzie Willingham of Dallas, mother of Herbert Willingham of Irving.

Mrs. Willingham, 72, died Monday at her home following a long illness.

Services were held at Lamar and Smith Chapel, with the Rev. Derwood Dubose officiating. Burial was in Laurel Land.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. H. M. Land of Dallas; four other sons, Grady Willingham of Mineola, James, Durwood and Neal Willingham of Dallas; four sisters, one brother, 13 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

I MR

2 June 1960

pg 12

Services Held For Mother Of Irvingite

Funeral services were held Saturday in Petersburg, Texas Methodist Church for Mrs. Emma W. Willis, 84, mother of Mrs. J.C. Morris of Irving. Burial was in Petersburg cemetery.

Mrs. Willis was a longtime resident of Hale County.

Other survivors include two sons, G.H. Willis and Paul Willis both of Petersburg; daughters, Mrs. T.M. Chastain, Quitman; Mrs. Francis Hunt, Plainview; Mrs. T.A. Moore, Maud, Okla.; a sister, Mrs. Eva Lenke, Essen, Germany; 10 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren.

W M Lee
22 Dec 1960

pg 5

Irving Barber Passes Away

R.L. "Bob" Winn, 68, of 403 Brandenburg, a retired barber, died Monday in the Veterans Hospital at Liston after a long illness.

Mr. Winn was a barber in Irving for 15 years. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of the Sowers Church of Christ.

Survivors are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Curtis Dumas of Harlingen, Roberta Winn; and son, Bobby Winn of Irving; one grandson, Brett Dumas. Other survivors are a brother, Jack Winn of Big Spring and four sisters, Stella Lyles of Big Springs, Jo Ann Allen of Altus, Okla., Maggie Hohen-sbelt of Sayre, Okla. and Maud Renfro of Greenfield, Calif.

Lamar & Smith Funeral Home of Dallas had charge of arrangements. Services were held Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. in the Irving Sowers Church of Christ. Burial was in the Old Kit Cemetery.

JMR
17 Mar 1960
pg 11

Raymond A. Wright

Irvingites'
Brother Dies
Unexpectedly

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Raymond A. Wright, brother of two Irving women, Mrs. W. A. Thompson and Mrs. C. J. Shores. Rev. M. E. McClamery of Hampton Place Baptist Church officiated at the service held at 2 p.m. in the Lamar & Smith Funeral Chapel in Dallas. Interment was in Laurel Land Memorial Park.

The deceased was an employee of Tunico Aircraft for the past 10 years. He died unexpectedly at his home Sunday. He had lived in Dallas since childhood.

In addition to the widow, he is survived by a daughter, Miss Dorothy Elaine Wright, and her father, W. T. Wright, all of Dallas. Also, Mrs. A. V. Fairbrother of Lewisville and Mrs. Josephine of Grand Prairie, and others. Dr. L. Wright of Dallas.

Best copy available

LMR
18 Aug 1960
pg 13

Wright Services Set Today

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in Mesquite for William Thomas Wright, 82, a retired Dallas contractor and father of Mrs. C.J. Shores, and Mrs. Audie Thompson, of Irving and brother of Mrs. Dick Story and Mrs. Ed Averett of Irving.

Mr. Wright died Wednesday in a Dallas hospital following a short illness.

A Dallas resident for 75 years, he was born in Llano County. He had been in the construction business for many years and had been associated with construction of the old Sanger Bros. Building, Trinity River levees and the Lake Dallas reservoir.

Services will be at the McCullough Funeral Chapel in Mesquite, and burial will be in Laurel Land Memorial Park.

Survivors include two sons, Dan E. Wright of Hayfork, Calif., and Nevitt S. Wright of Dallas; two other daughters, Mrs. Bessie Owen of Grand Prairie and Mrs. Arthur Farine of Lewisville. two brothers, Joe Wright of Arlington and George W. Wright of Fort Worth; 35 grandchildren and 52 great-grandchildren.

*DN Lw
23 Dec 1960
pg 5*

