BELLEVILLE, Ont. -- The body of a 10-year-old boy kidnaped for $25,000 ransom was found near here late Wednesday, less than 24 hours after a man who claimed he was an unwilling "go-between" in the kidnap plot committed suicide. Police said the body of Thomas McNevin was found in a field five miles northwest of here. The boy, whose father, Donald, operated a creamery here, had been missing since Monday when he left home to play hockey. His disappearance and the receipt of a ransom note and phone call were not disclosed by police until Wednesday.
