

Last Rites Stated For Coach Adkins

IRVING — Earl Adkins, a football coach who endeared himself to thousands of Irvingites during a 10-year tenure at Irving High School, died Friday morning in a Dallas hospital after a long illness. He was 53.

Funeral services will be held at First Methodist Church, with the Rev. Robert Waker officiating. Interment will be in Oak Grove Memorial Park. Leach Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Adkins coached here from 1932 to 1942, and had several championship teams. His boys won the regional championship in 1936.

For the last 17 years of his active career, Adkins was backfield coach at North Dallas High School. He was forced to retire on account of ill health two years ago.

A native of Milford, Tex., Adkins received a masters degree from North Texas State College. He was a member of First Methodist Church here, as well as the Mens Club of Dallas and the Texas Coaches Assn.

The family residence is at 2056 E. Irving Blvd.
