GP Man Kills Ex-Wife, Self

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex. (UPI) -- A Grand Prairie man shot and killed his ex-wife and then turned the gun on himself in a murder and suicide in a downtown insurance office Thursday.

The man, Bird Eugene Humphreys, 37, was killed instantly. His ex-wife, Margaret A. Humphreys, 31, died in a Grand Prairie hospital 45 minutes after the shooting.

Grand Prairie police said Humphreys asked to see his wife at the Howard Hall insurance agency. When he found her in a hallway he opened fire with a .38 caliber revolver. She was shot four times as she tried to flee.

Police said Humphreys then reloaded the gun and shot himself in the right temple.
