Rites Set For Wreck Victim

Services for Milton "Bud" Brooks will be held Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Wilkerson-Hatch Funeral home in Waco.

Brooks was killed around noon Saturday when his car careened out of control and flipped one and a half times on US Highway 380, 43 miles east of Roswell, New Mexico.

A salesman for Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company in Dallas, Brooks had worked for the company for about three years.

He and his wife, Arlene, lived at 1222 Doncaster. Neighbors said the couple had only been married a year. Mrs. Brooks is 24 years old. They have no children.

Friends described Brooks as a reserved man who spent most of his spare time painting.

"He was a true artist," said one neighbor. He has painted hundreds of fine pictures."

Brooks was native of Waco and a graduate of Baylor University in Waco. Monday, Mrs. Brooks was en route to Waco from Roswell. The

The tragic accident took place when Brooks reached in the back seat of his speeding car and lost control of the vehicle. The couple were on their way back from Las Vegas.

First reports indicated that Mrs. Brooks was injured seriously in the mishap, but this does not appear to be true. Family friends said her back was hurt, but not severely. Mrs. Brooks works for Brooks Uniform Company of Dallas (no relation).

Miss Burns Dies On Third Attempt

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Barbara Burns, 22, daughter of the late comedian Bob (Bazooka) Burns, died Monday from an overdose of sleeping pills after a vain fight to beat the narcotics habit that wrecked her life and made her an outcast with her family.

The tall, slender, auburn-haired girl, who was found near death propped against a picket fence Saturday, died at Los Angeles General Hospital without regaining consciousness, a spokesman said. No member of her family was present, the spokesman added.

Only four days ago, Miss Burns told a newspaper that she had made a New Year's resolution to break the narcotics habit. She repeated a statement she had made many times:

"Tell the kids never to try dope. It's not worth it."
