Services Planned For Crash Victim

Requiem Mass will be held for Dr. Roger A. Jutras, who died Wednesday in a flaming plane crash at Grand Prairie's Hensley Field.

Dr. Jutras, 33, and 2nd Lt. Daniel M. Jacoby were killed when their T33 trainer plane crashed while on takeoff. Jutras was a captain in the Air National Guard.

The unit flight surgeon had lived in Irving five years, and was a member of St. Luke's Catholic Church.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia; four sons, Mark, Michael, Craig and Chris Jutras, all of Irving; mother, Mrs. Levi Jutras; one sister, Cecile Coulombe of Lewiston, Maine; two brothers, Lucien Jutras of Mass., and Normand Jutras of Maine.

Funeral services will begin at 10 a.m. at St. Luke's Church.

A four-man Air Force investigating team was to arrive from Oklahoma City Thursday to seek the cause of the crash. Capt. Jutras and Lt. Jacoby were both termed highly experienced pilots by a unit spokesman.

The Irving Junior Chamber of Commerce said Thursday it would establish a memorial fund in honor of Dr. Jutras.

At the request of the family, donations may be made to this fund in lieu of flowers. Donations should be payable to the Roger A. Jutras Memorial Fund, P. O. Box 12, Irving. Further information is available from Steve Feliows (BL3-4195) and Meredith Bolger (BL3-5467).
