

4th Fatality Hits Irving

Shelia Lanora Achee, 17, of 1313 Wentwood in Irving, became the city's fourth traffic fatality of the year Thursday night when her automobile collided with a truck at the intersection of Belt Line Rd. and Highway 114.

Charles Clifton Wallace II, 16, also of Irving, a passenger in the Achee car, was injured in the accident, but was released from Parkland Hospital early Friday morning.

According to police, the Achee automobile was traveling south on Belt Line and had stopped for a stop sign on the north side of Highway 114. As the truck, driven by Mickie Gene Hightower of Bowie, approached from the west side of the intersection, the Achee car pulled into its path.

The truck struck the car on the right side and both Miss Achee and Wallace were thrown from the vehicle. Hightower's truck veered off the road and struck a utility pole on the east side of the intersection. Both vehicles ended up in the ditch on the east side of the intersection.

Miss Achee was dead on arrival at Parkland Hospital, but Hightower, the truck driver, was not injured in the accident.

Funeral services will be held today at 2:30 p.m. at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Irving. Rev. Joseph Hollifield will officiate. Interment will be in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Miss Achee is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Achee, and a sister, Coleen.
