

Evelyn Eads

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Mrs. Evelyn Overtuff Eads of 625 W. Eighth Street in Irving.

Mrs. Eads is survived by her husband, Thomas G. Eads; one son, Tommy T. Furlow of Dallas; two grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Howard Peeler of Diana, Texas; one brother, W. V. Overturf of Jacksonville, N. C.

Services were held at 4 p.m. at Restland's Memorial Chapel with Rev. Gary Coleman officiating. Interment was in Restland.

Pallbearers were J. B. Overturf, O. O. Overturf, John Overturf, David McDowell, Robert Maynard, and David Maynard.

DNJ
17 Oct 1963
Pg 5

J. W. Eaton

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Jessie W. Eaton of Pasadena, Texas. He was the brother of an Irving woman.

He is survived by his wife, Vivian; two grandchildren; four brothers, J. E. Eaton and S. F. Eaton, both of Plano, K.C. Eaton of Carrollton and Frank Eaton of Richardson; four sisters, Mrs. C. A. Wylie of Pampa, Texas, Mrs. Mary Evans of Carrollton, Mrs. Dorothy Wilbanks of Irving and Mrs. Ruth Evans of El Cerito, Calif.

Services were held at 2 p.m. at the Old Frankford Church. Father James J. Niles officiated. Interment was in the Frankford Cemetery.

DNJ

22 Nov 1963

pg 7

Death Ends Long Stay in Hospital

Final rites were held Saturday afternoon at Leach Funeral Chapel for Andrew Garvin Edmonson Sr. who died unexpectedly in St. Paul's Hospital Friday morning. The Rev. Joseph Hollifield of the Church of the Redeemer officiated at the services.

Edmonson has been a patient at the hospital since suffering a heart attack February 13.

Edmonson was agency secretary for Southland Life Insurance Company at the time of his death, a post he had filled since March 15, 1954. Associated with Southland Life since the age of 18, he marked his thirty-fourth company anniversary last March 1.

During his long tenure he had served the company in its accounting, policy issue, reinsurance, and underwriting departments, and managed the accident and health department from January 1, 1952, until he assumed agency secretary responsibilities nine years ago.

Born in Greenville Aug. 10, 1910, he completed high school in Hawkins, Texas, attended business school in Dallas, and joined Southland Life upon completion of that training.

Edmonson married Miss Ruth Rembert of Dallas, August 8, 1936. Survivors include the widow, the couple's two children, Andrew Jr. of Dallas, and Mrs. Adis McCasland Jr. of Big Spring; two sisters, Mrs. W. Lee Honey of Dallas, and Mrs. Eli McRorey of Tulsa, Okla.; and two brothers, John and Truman, of South Texas.

Pallbearers were Luther Knox, George Miller, W. L. Candler, J. W. Welch, Kenneth B. Skinner, and Jack Edwards.

ANDY EDMONSON

DNJ
10 Mar 1963
Pg 12

Funeral Today For Edmonson

IRVING -- Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. Saturday at Leach Funeral Chapel for Andrew Garvin Edmonson Sr., 1025 Edmonson. He died Friday of pneumonia.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth; one son, Andrew Edmonson, Jr.; one daughter, Mrs. Adis McCasland, Jr. of Big Spring, Tex. The Rev. Joseph Hollifield will officiate, and burial will be in Oak Grove.

D M J

11 Mar 1963

pg 12

E. W. Edwards

Funeral services were held Monday for Earl W. Edwards, 207 Cockrell Hill Rd., Dallas. He died Saturday. He was 59, and the brother of an Irving woman.

He is survived by his stepmother, Mrs. Will-Bess Griffith of Dallas; one brother, Ned M. Edwards of Dallas; one sister, Miss Norma Lee Edwards of Houston; two half-sisters, Mrs. A. D. Watson, of Dallas; and Mrs. Robert Ruckman of Irving; one aunt, Mrs. Sally Smith of Grand Prairie.

Services were held at 2 p.m. at the Moore-Brown Chapel. Rev. D. C. Dunson officiated. Interment was in the Southland Cemetery.

JM J

18 June 1963

pg 6

F. L. Edwards

Funeral services will be held Tuesday for Fred Lee Edwards of 5552 Drane Dr., Dallas. He died Saturday night in a Dallas hospital after a short illness. He was a well known former Irvingite.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church and was active in the Rotary Club.

He is survived by his wife, Maude; one son, Roland Edwards; three grandchildren; two brothers, Frank M. and ~~J. P. Edwards, both of Dallas;~~ one step-daughter, Mrs. Willard Sutton of Irving. Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. at the Weiland-Merritt Funeral Chapel. Interment will be in the Hillcrest Memorial Park. Pallbearers will be Harry Spencer, Louis Blaylock, M. U. Barton, Jerre Elliott, Pat Lynch, Gus Bowman.

L M J

12 Mar. 1963

pg 3

Miss Martha Eiselstein

Funeral services will be held Tuesday for Miss Martha Eiselstein of Mexia, Texas. She was born in Germany in 1904, and moved to Irving with her family in 1912 and lived here until 1927. She moved to Austin and lived there until 1956, and then to Mexia, where she died Sunday in a hospital there.

She is survived by two brothers, S. E. Eiselstein and Henry Artman, both of Dallas; four sisters, Mrs. Freida Butcher of Menlo Park, Calif., Miss Johanna Eiselstein, Miss Mary Eiselstein, and Mrs. Roberta Vivrett, all of Dallas.

Services will be held at the Leach Funeral Home at 10 a.m. Tuesday. Msgr. William J. Smyth will officiate. Interment will be in the Sowles Cemetery.

NMJ
28 May 1963
pg 4

Death Claims Sue K. Ennis

HALTOM CITY -- Mrs. Sue Kathryn Ennis, mother of Robert Ennis, Jr., died early Friday morning in an Arlington hospital after an illness of several months.

A resident of Arlington the past four years, Mrs. Ennis lived in Fort Worth about 40 years and was a member of the downtown First Baptist Church. She was a retired Swift and Company employe and worked in the S and H Green Stamp accounting office before she became ill.

She is also survived by another son, Richard Ennis of St. Petersburg, Florida; and five grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Lottie Riley of Oklahoma City; and two brothers, Doyle Carpenter of Oklahoma City; and Frank Carpenter of Los Angeles.

Services will be held at Moore Funeral Chapel in Arlington at 3 p.m. Saturday with Rev. Homer Ritchie officiating. Burial will be in Rose Hill.

LJN J
5 Jan 1963
pg 3

E.L. Evans Dies at 48

IRVING -- Funeral services will be held in Pittsburgh, Pa. for Edward J. Evans, 705 E. 3rd St. He died suddenly Friday, having lived in Irving for the past three years. He was 48 and a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

The body is being flown to Pittsburgh to the George Heard and Sons Funeral Home. He is survived by his father, Thomas Evans; one sister, Mrs. Charles Clark; one brother, Thomas R. Evans, all of Irving.

Leach Funeral Home is in charge. Persons wishing to send flowers should send them to the George Heard and Sons Funeral Home in Pittsburgh, Pa.

AMJ

9 Mar 1963

pg 2