STANFORD ALLEN LYNCH

Infant dies in car wreck

An Irving infant died in an early morning traffic accident Saturday that also injured his mother, brother and sister.

Police said Stanford Allen Lynch of 3200 W. Pioneer Dr. was one of three children riding with their mother, Esther Faye Lynch, about 4:15 a.m. in the 800 block of East Irving Boulevard when the mother lost control of the westbound 1974 Chevrolet Monza and hit a telephone pole.

The exact age of the infant was not available Saturday morning, police said.

The 26-year-old mother and her 3-year-old children, Candace Michelle Lynch and Ronnie Warren Lynch, were listed in fair condition Saturday morning at Parkland Memorial Hospital.
