Martin

Gary Wayne "Custer" Martin, 25, of Irving died Nov. 1 in Rockwall County.

Martin drowned about 30 miles east of Dallas in flooding caused by recent heavy rains.

Martin, his wife, Sonja, and their 18-month old daughter, April Dawn, left their car Nov. 1 after it stalled along Interstate 30.

They apparently were pulled into the swift current of an overflowing creek.

Mrs. Martin was found the morning of Nov. 1 and treated and released from an area hospital last week. The child's body was found the afternoon of Nov. 1.

Officials found Mr. Martin's body Saturday about a mile south of Royce City, some 200 yards from where his daughter's body was discovered.

The search took a week, because his body was lodged in a deep hole under some brush, officials said.

Mr. Martin was an Irving resident for the past seven years.

Services will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Southland Funeral Home's Third Street chapel in Grand Prairie. Burial will be at Southland Memorial Park in Grand Prairie.
