Couple killed in crash

A Grand Prairie couple was killed Sunday morning when the van they were riding in flipped over and crashed on U.S. Highway 287 about five miles west of Childress.

A spokesman for Texas Department of Public Safety in Childress said Mary Diane von Reyn, 40, and James Everhard von Reyn, 41, were killed in the crash that occurred at 8:20 a.m. Sunday. Three other persons riding in the van, Jennifer Hosea, 17, Linday Hosea, 43, and John Hosea, 45, all of Irving, were taken to a hospital for treatment of minor injuries and later were released.

DPS officers reported Mary von Reyn was driving the 1984 Ford van eastbound on U.S. Highway 287 when she ran off the roadway onto a median. She lost control of the vehicle, causing it to flip 3 1/2 times. James von Reyn, who was riding in the front passenger seat, was ejected from the car.

His wife was wearing her seat belt and remained in the smashed van. She died at the scene and her husband was taken to Childress General Hospital, where he died at 9:40 a.m. Sunday.
