Man, 28, dies after stabbing

A 28-year-old Irving man died after he was stabbed in the chest outside his Piedmont Apartments residence Sunday, police said.

~~Roberto Lara Perez of 2424 Garden Oaks Drive was pronounced dead at Parkland Memorial Hospital in Dallas at 2:37 a.m. Sunday, police said.~~

Investigators reported that Perez had gotten into an argument with a 31-year-old Irving man in the courtyard of the Piedmont Apartments. The argument grew in intensity until the 31-year-old stabbed Perez, police said.

Investigators arrived a few minutes later and found the 31-year-old wandering along the 100 block of North Story Road. When police stopped him, the man was carrying a bloody knife, reports said.

An officer ran back to the complex, where Perez's body was found outside his apartment. Investigators reported that the dead man apparently staggered back toward his apartment before finally collapsing near the doorway.

Police spent Monday looking into the possibility that the older man acted in self-defense when he stabbed Perez. Meanwhile, the 31-year-old man remained in jail, where police are holding him for investigation of murder.
