Irving man killed in morning accident

A 53-year-old Irving man died Monday afternoon at Parkland Memorial Hospital from injuries sustained in an early morning traffic accident, officials said.

Don Harris died at 3:25 p.m. from multiple, blunt-impact injuries that he suffered in the accident, according to the Dallas County medical examiner's office.

Harris was westbound on the north Airport Freeway service road near Valley View Lane at 6:40 a.m. Monday, police said. The driver of a 1977 Ford pickup was heading north on Valley View Lane approaching the intersection at the service road, police said.

A 1985 Chevrolet Nova was stopped in the southbound lane of Valley View at the Airport Freeway service road, police said.

Harris' 1983 Honda Civic and the pickup collided in the intersection of the north Airport Freeway service road and Valley View Lane, traffic Sgt. Michael Christy said.

The impact knocked Harris' car into the Nova, Christy said.

Harris was the only person injured in the accident, Christy said.

The accident still is under investigation, with possible citations pending, Christy said.
