FBI LINKS MISSING IRVING MAN TO BIG BEND BODIES

Big Bend National Park, Texas/ (AP)/ An Irving man who never returned from a camping trip with his daughter owns the burned out van found with a child inside in a remote West Texas campground, investigators say.

Nearby park rangers found the mutilated body of a man in the brush along the Rio Grande.

FBI officials say the green 1979 Volkswagen van was registered to Donald Tate, 26, who has not yet returned from a July 11 camping trip in Big Bend with his five-year-old daughter Boston Michelle Tate.

The FBI called Irving police about the van Wednesday.

Friends and police said they were expected home last Friday, the day the man's body was found in brush along the Rio Grande.

The deaths did not appear to be related said Robert Valen, a spokesman for the National Park Service.

Don Tate, Class of MHS '83 and son of Mrs. Martha Tate, MHS French teacher. He was married to April Ward, also class of '83 MHS. His beautiful little daughter was also taken in this horrific and tragic event on a camping trip in the Big Bend National Park July, 1991. Their deaths have gone unsolved to this day. I know they are missed, loved, and thought of every single day.

Alicia Woods: Please see my comment on this. In respect to me and my family...I ask that Donald is not "memorialized" on this website. He is not missed by those who knew him best. Thank you.

Man dies 8 days after ATV accident

An Irving man died July 30 from injuries he sustained in an All Terrain Vehicle accident that occurred July 22, reports said.

John E. Thomas, 43, was riding his four-wheel ATV near State Highway 161 between Esters Road and Valley View Lane, in a construction area, when he lost control of the vehicle on a dirt pile and the ATV turned over, reports said.

Thomas was taken to The Irving Hospital by a Fire Department ambulance. Police were told that Thomas' injuries were not life-threatening, so officers did not go to the hospital, reports said.

Eight days later, however, White was taken to Parkland Memorial Hospital, where he died, reports said. An autopsy revealed that the cause of death was blood clots that formed as a result of the injuries sustained in the ATV accident, according to the medical examiner.

The death was ruled accidental.
