Teen suspect arrested in

By LIZABETH CARDENAS

News Staff Writer

After searching for more than a day, Irving police Friday night arrested a 17-year-old suspect in the fatal gang-related shooting of a 16-year-old Irving teen and have also identified a second shooter in the incident.

Paul Mendoza, of Irving, was arraigned Saturday on a single murder charge in the Thursday shooting death of Sergio Ceja. He is being held at the Irving jail on a $50,000 bond. Mendoza was also charged with criminal trespassing, with that bond set at $500.

Ceja died at the scene of the drive-by shooting in a neighborhood near Nimitz High School and was taken to the Dallas County Medical Examiner's office.

Police also believe there was a second shooter involved in the homicide — a 17-year-old Hispanic male from Irving.

“Our investigation is continuing and it looks like a second shooter was also involved,” said David Tull, public information officer with the Irving police depart-

Thursday gang slaying

Officials remove the body of 16-year-old Sergio Ceja from the murder scene near Nimitz High School Thursday. Police arrested 17-year-old Paul Mendoza Friday night.
Shooting: Second teen suspect

"The victim's car wrecked out in the yard of a house at the corner of Vilbig and Rindie. The vehicle hit a curb, crossed the intersection, ran over a stop sign, went onto the yard of the house, sideswiped a tree and hit a gas meter before coming to a stop."

— David Tull, IPD spokesman

"The victim had gone to Nimitz High School to pick up the one who are in school," Tull said. "The incident occurred a couple of streets over and west of Nimitz. It wasn't too far from the high school.

All of the passengers in the victim's car were from Irving. Three were 15-year-olds and two were 18-year-olds.

Four of the passengers were students at Nimitz High School. Neither the victim nor one of the passengers were high-school students.

Although both Ceja and the suspect were identified as local gang members, Tull said detectives are still trying to determine whether the passengers were also gang members.

Man dies of injuries from bus accident

By LIZABETH CARDENAS
News Staff Writer

A 62-year-old Grand Prairie man died from injuries suffered in a traffic accident Tuesday morning in front of Irving City Hall after an Irving school district bus failed to yield right of way and struck his truck, police said.

Albert Wayne Cobb was transported by CareFlight helicopter from the scene of the accident in the 800 block of West Irving Boulevard to Dallas Methodist Hospital, where he was pronounced dead.

Also riding in the 1989 F150 Ford pickup was Cobb's 28-year-old son. The son refused medical treatment at the scene.

"The passenger suffered no outward signs of injuries," said David Tull, public information officer with the Irving Police Department.

Charges may be filed against the 78-year-old bus driver, who also was uninjured, Tull said.

According to police, the truck was eastbound on Irving Boulevard at 8:20 a.m. and the bus, which was not transporting any children, was coming from the north access road attempting to go eastbound on Irving Boulevard, Tull said.

☐ See BUS, Page 8A

Bus: Accident claims life

"The bus apparently failed to yield right of way and was struck by the truck," Tull said. "That caused the truck to flip. It flipped and rolled over."

Speed was not a factor in the incident, Tull said.

"The back left of the truck clipped the right front of the bus, pushing the truck around sideways," Tull said. "The truck then hit the curb and the momentum caused the truck to flip.

The driver and passenger were both pinned in the truck."

Fire department personnel lifted the truck and were able to get both men out, he said.

Tull said police believe both men in the truck were wearing their seatbelts.

According to police, the men were on their way to work in Irving at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens.

The bus was on its way to pick up Irving school children for a field trip, police said.
