OBITUARIES

Rites held for Clifford Janicek, ex-deputy sheriff

Clifford Thomas Janicek, 75, a former Dallas County deputy sheriff, died Nov. 3 in Dallas.

Services were Saturday in Dallas.

Clifford Janicek

Mr. Janicek, who died from a heart tumor, served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. As a crew member aboard the submarine Wahoo, he earned, along with the entire crew, a Navy Cross for exceptional heroism in combat.

"During a mission on the Yangtze River [in China], my husband said he saw a side of the war that most don't see," said his wife, Irma Janicek of Irving. "He saw how alike the Chinese and Americans were. He saw women doing laundry, tending to their children and just doing ordinary things."

Mr. Janicek joined the Sheriff's Department in 1955. He served under Sheriff Bill Decker, who as chief deputy constable of Dallas investigated the 1930s bank robberies by Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow.

"Decker pretty much hand-picked the people he wanted working for him," Mrs. Janicek said. "My husband was pleased that Decker chose him."

Mr. Janicek left the department after five years, becoming a long-haul truck driver for Morton Foods, Burleson Honey and Consolidated Freight-ways.

Mr. Janicek became an Irving volunteer fireman in 1949 and continued until the city hired a full-time paid staff in the late 1950s.

He was a member of the Irving Masonic Lodge, the Hella Shrine Temple and the Dallas County Sheriff "J.E. 'Bill' Decker" Deputy Association.

Other survivors include a daughter, Dianne Reed of Dallas; two sons, George Thomas Janicek of Manitou Springs, Colo., and Michael Louis Janicek of Seattle; his mother, Retta Nelson of Irving; a brother, Louis Janicek of Irving; and six granddaughters.

Memorials may be made to Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children, 2222 Welborn St., Dallas, Texas 75219.
