Motorcycle accident kills Irving man, 22

By STEPHEN TERRY
News Staff Writer

A 22-year-old Irving man died Saturday, hours after being struck by a van at the intersection of Nursery Road and McClendon Street.

Dudley Lane was riding a black Kawasaki Ninja motorcycle about 2:10 p.m. at a high rate of speed when he crashed into a 1993 Dodge van driven by a 43-year-old Irving woman, according to police reports.

Police said Lane was taken to the hospital with serious injuries and died about four hours later at Parkland Memorial Hospital.

Lane was traveling north on Nursery Road when the van pulled out from a stop sign at McClendon Street, according to police reports.

"The van had the stop sign and then pulled off," said David Tull, Irving police public information officer. "Depending on the speed of the motorcycle, the van's driver may not have been able to see it."

Police reported that witnesses said Lane was exceeding the speed limit when he hit the van. Police said they are still investigating the fatal crash to determine "who was at fault."

At this point in the investigation, Tull said it is "doubtful" charges will be filed.

Lane was wearing his helmet before the accident occurred, and the van's driver was wearing a seat belt, according to police reports. Police said alcohol and weather were not factors in the crash.

Saturday's occurred June 30, when a 25-year-old Dallas man was killed exiting a private drive in the 9400 block of MacArthur Boulevard.

Man drowns in Grapevine Lake

By STEPHEN TERRY
News Staff Writer

An Irving man's body was found floating about 50 yards from the shore of a Grapevine Lake cove after a two-hour search by Grapevine rescue personnel on Monday.

Arturo Lobato, 23, was fishing off the shore with his uncle, Martin Delao of Irving, about 4:48 p.m. when the two decided to swim across a cove to another location in Lakeview Park, police said. The cove is about 400 yards wide.

"They were swimming together and (Lobato) told his uncle he was tired and he couldn't swim anymore," said Robert W. Murphy, Grapevine police public informa-

A Grapevine officer was at the scene when the call was dispatched. The officer was directed to the area where Lobato was last seen and entered the water. Grapevine's fire department and its dive team arrived at the lake about 4:52 p.m. Grapevine fire department divers found Lobato's body at about 6:51 p.m. in 15-foot-deep water near the west shore of the cove.

Police said Lobato's drowning was the only such incident at the Grapevine Lake during the Fourth of July weekend.

"It is not a designated a beach area, but people tend to go in any-where around the shore line," Murphy said. "That particular area (where Lobato was found) is not where people normally congregate for swimming purposes."

Police said they have no reason to believe "alcohol or anything like that" was a factor in Monday's drowning.
