1927 - 2000

Denny Ray McGee, 72, of Irving, Texas, a retired Machinist with Collins Radio (Rockwell International, Alcatel), passed away at his home on February 24, 2000, following a courageous battle with cancer.

Mr. McGee was born the son of Walter and Mable (nee Flynn) McGee in Los Angeles, California on September 18, 1927. He joined the U.S. Merchant Marines in 1945. Later, he enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard and the National Guard, from which he was honorably discharged as a Corporal. He retired from Collins Radio (Rockwell International, Alcatel) in 1985 after 30 years of service as a Machinist.

A resident of Irving, Texas since 1952, Mr. McGee was a member of the First Baptist Church. He was a member of the Dallas/Fort Worth Rose Society and a former consulting Rosarian of the south central district of the American Rose Society. He and his wife, Sue, enjoyed a rich retirement life together growing and showing prize-winning roses from their garden.

His infant son, Steven Royce McGee, precedes Mr. McGee in death. He is survived by his loving wife of 49 years, Sue Jo McGee of Irving; his daughter, Kathy Albright of Carrollton, Texas; two grandchildren, Chrissy Albright and Andy Albright, both of Carrollton; a sister and brother-in-law, Joyce and Horace Maynard of Kenedy, Texas; and numerous nieces and nephews.

"Daddy, you touched us with your humor, happiness, and love of life. You will always be remembered for your many kindnesses and compassion. You always saw the best in people and were always ready to lend a hand. You were an easy man to love and admire, and we will miss you everyday, but we take comfort in knowing you are at peace now."

A handwritten signature or set of initials in the bottom right corner of the page. The writing is cursive and appears to be a name, possibly 'Sue Jo McGee' or similar, though it is difficult to decipher due to the cursive style.
