Erik Onstad 1927 - 2000

Erik Onstad, 72, of Irving, Texas, retired Owner of Fjeldberg Bruk Lumber Company, passed away at his home in Moss, Norway, on Monday, May 29, 2000.

Mr. Onstad was born on September 11, 1927, in Moss. He was a member of the Fredrikstad Rotary Club, in Fredrikstad, Norway, a past member of the Board of Directors for Bergen Bank, and a former city councilman of Fredrikstad. He was also a member of the Norwegian State Lutheran Church.

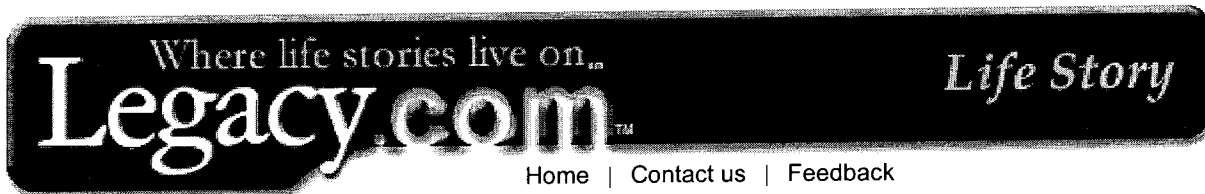

Mr. Onstad was an avid hunter and outdoorsman. He loved walking through his forest and making beautiful bowls and pieces of art with different types of woods. Erik was a man who loved the Lord and his family. He was very proud of all of his children and grandchildren. He loved to laugh and play with all of the people he loved and cared about. He was a man who loved the mother of his children until her death with all his heart.

After the death of his wife, he and his friend Hans Erik took a cruise. There, Erik found his love and companion until death. The lady he found was from a foreign country, and he would go around the world to spend his life with her. He enjoyed showing her his love with gifts and many thoughtful and kind acts.

He attended the Irving Baptist Fellowship Church during the time he spent in the United States with his wife.

Erik is survived by his wife, Lou Morgan Onstad of Irving, Texas, and three sons and daughters-in-law: Karl-Erik (Hilde) Onstad of Fredrikstad, Finn-Thomas (Anne-Lill) Onstad of Slevik, Norway, and Sverre (Heidi) Onstad of Slevik. He is also survived by six grandchildren, Jorgen, Henrik, Andreas, Karianne, Karl-Mangus, and Cathrine Louise, and by a sister and brother-in-law, Tuppen and Kjell Seim of Bergen, Norway, as well as other family members and friends from Norway, Texas, and Florida.

A handwritten signature or set of initials, possibly "J/W", written in a cursive style. The signature is enclosed within a heart-shaped outline.
