Rites held for pastor Ronald L. Dunn

07/04/2001

By LaKisha Ladson / The Dallas Morning News

Ronald L. Dunn, a Southern Baptist pastor and author, died of lung disease Friday at Baylor Medical Center at Irving. Services were Monday in Euless.

Mr. Dunn, 64, was the pastor of MacArthur Boulevard Baptist Church in Irving for nine years. He had held the honorary title of minister-at-large at the church since 1975. He traveled to conferences around the world to teach and preach.

Mr. Dunn was also the president of LifeStyle Ministries, which distributed his taped sermons to people around the world.

He wrote several books, including When Heaven Is Silent, published in 1994, which is about the suicide of his son.

"He took that and taught people how to deal with heartache. When you can't trace what God is doing, just trust him," said Joanne Gardner, Mr. Dunn's business assistant for 35 years.

His book, Don't Just Stand There, Pray Something, was on the Christian best-seller list in Britain in 1993.

Mr. Dunn started a 24-hour Intercessory Prayer Ministry in 1972, one of the first in the country, Mrs. Gardner said.

He devoted his life to helping younger pastors and, in 1975, started an annual conference for Baptist pastors in Utah and Idaho. "He was a pastor's pastor. He knew how to teach you," Mrs. Gardner said.

"He lived what he preached."

Mr. Dunn started preaching at age 15. He was pastor of a church at 17. He graduated from Oklahoma Baptist University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He is survived by his wife, Kaye Dunn; a son, Stephen Dunn of Irving; a daughter, Kimberly Dunn of Irving; and a brother, Barry Dunn of Nashville, Tenn.

Memorials may be given to LifeStyle Ministries, P.O. Box 153087, Irving, TX 75015.
