Decorated war veteran, civic leader

By LaKISHA LADSON
Staff Writer

Services for Roy Henson Rogers III, an Irving civic leader who co-founded the group Friends of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Brown’s Memorial Funeral Home Chapel, 707 N. MacArthur Blvd., Irving.

Mr. Rogers, 52, died of cancer Friday at his Irving home. Burial will be at 1 p.m. at the Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery.

“Roy was most instrumental in the planning, development and construction of the Texas Vietnam memorial at Fair Park,” said John Street of Mount Vernon, president and co-founder of Friends of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

Mr. Rogers served as vice president of the memorial friends group. Mr. Street said the group would continue to pursue Mr. Rogers’ goal to add an eternal flame with the names of veterans listed as prisoners of war or missing in action.

“He touched many, many lives at the memorial, not only just other veterans, but the families of those listed on it,” Mr. Street said.

The Texas Vietnam Veterans of America awarded him a Distinguished Service Award this year.

Roy Rogers baseball field at Irving’s Trinity View Park was named in his honor earlier this year.

Born Sept. 1, 1948, Mr. Rogers was raised in Irving and graduated from Irving High School. He served in the Army from 1968 to 1970.

Mr. Rogers received the Bronze Star Medal and Purple Heart for his service during Vietnam. He was the 168th person to be awarded the Silver Rose, which is given to veterans exposed to Agent Orange.

Mr. Rogers, who was not related to the singing cowboy that shared his name, owned Roy Rogers Discount Furniture and Roy Rogers Auction Co. in Irving.

He was a board member of the Irving Boys Baseball Association, serving as umpire director and treasurer.

Mr. Rogers coached boys through the Irving Soccer Association from 1984 until the mid-1990s. He also coached for the Irving Pony Baseball League from 1986 until the late 1990s. The team won the city championship in 1993.

“He really had a compassion for youth and veterans both,” said his wife, Priscilla Rogers.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Rogers is survived by sons Roy “Bo” Rogers IV of Lewisville and Casey Rogers of Irving; mother and stepfather Mary and Jim Welch of Mineola, Texas; and sisters, Becky Grimes of DeSoto, Julie Whitten of Mesquite and Bonita Jones of Fort Worth.
