Former school board member John Stipes III of Irving dies

07/31/2001

By Joe Simmacher / The Dallas Morning News

Services for former Irving school board member John Wesley Stipes III will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at First Baptist Church of Irving, 403 S. Main St. in Irving.

Mr. Stipes, 71, died Saturday of natural causes at his home. He will be buried in Oak Grove Memorial Gardens.

Generations of students knew Mr. Stipes for the attention he had given them since 1955, said his son, Randy Stipes of Irving.

"Dad has three of us as his sons and daughters, and he's got grandchildren and great-grandchildren, but he's probably got 10,000 other kids in this town that he called his," Randy Stipes said.

Larry Stipes, Mr. Stipes' other son, said two college students from Irving were the first people to visit the funeral home Monday morning.

"All the kids who are around his grandkids and great-grandkids call him Poppy just like they do," Randy Stipes said.

VIOLET, 91, of Irving, TX passed away Friday, September 21, 2001. She is survived by her two daughters, Mary Cooksey and Freda Boatwright, one son, Floyd "Buddy" Story, 12 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and 29 great-great-grandchildren. Let me tell you of a Violet of a different sort: This Violet has a smile always and she is not tall but a trifle short. She loved her family and of mothers was the best: In spite of many tears and sorrows for the life she kept a zest: She's had her share of worry, fear and strife. But she always put it behind her and went on with life. Visitation will be Sunday, September 23, 2001 from 2 to 8 P.M. Funeral service will be Monday, September 24, 2001 10 A.M. both at Hughes North Chapel. Interment to follow at Crown Hill Memorial Park.
