ABBOY

GLORIA, 58, of Irving died Friday, August 26, 2002. Born August 17, 1944 in Trenton, N.J. She was reared in Texas, mainly in Fort Worth. She grew up the daughter of a Methodist minister and remained a Methodist all of her life. She received a degree in education from Texas Wesleyan University and taught elementary schools several years before retiring to become a fulltime mother and homemaker. It was at that time that Gloria began opening her home and her heart to friends, business associates, charities, and social functions. She excelled at this as she did in all areas of her life. Gloria was a unique individual whose care and love of others was abounding. As a daughter, wife, mother, and friend, she exhibited kindness that only she could provide. She was a daughter whose constant concern for her family was everlasting. To her many friends she was an accomplished hostess and gourmet cook. She always had a sympathetic ear and tender word of encouragement. To her many pets, she was a diligent caretaker and provider. Her love of plants and flowers was always evident in her home. As a wife to her husband, Brooks, she was a steadfast companion in 57 years of marriage. But the light of her life was their son, Clay. Gloria took great pride in Clay's achievements and shined in her role as doting to many. Brooks and Gloria's home was always open to Clay's friends. Gloria considered those friends her kids and delighted in cooking for them. Her joy in Clay's achievements were enhanced when her daughter-in-law, Alejandra, joined her family last year. Gloria's family and extended family and friends will miss her terribly, but she will always remain in our hearts. Her smile and laugh will be a constant memory to all that knew and loved her. Survivors include her husband, Brooks Abbott, son and daughter-in-law, Clay and Alejandra Abbott of Irving; parents, Rev. Bill and Gloria Shirey of Bedford; her twin sister, Gayle Chapman of Richardson.
