George Bynum

George Bynum, 77, of Irving, died Saturday at Baylor Medical Center at Irving from complications after bypass surgery. A memorial service was Monday at Donnelly's Colonial Chapel in Irving.

Mr. Bynum was born May 30, 1925, in Brownwood, Texas, and graduated from Brownwood High School and Texas A&M University. He served in the Navy from 1942 to 1945. He was a pioneering geophysicist in computer mapping technology and worked in the oil industry, first for Western Geophysical and then Mobil Oil. At Mobil, he worked with satellite and seismic data to develop three-dimensional maps for oil exploration. After retiring in 1984, he worked as a consultant.

He played the clarinet in the Irving Community Band and the Mountain View Community Band.

Survivors include his wife, Ramona Bynum of Irving; son Scott Bynum of Denton; daughters Meredith Strout of Lexington, Mass., and Elizabeth Haas of Walpole, Mass.; and five grandchildren.
Billy Byrd Jr.

Billy Leon Byrd Jr., 45, of Irving died Tuesday in a Galveston hospital. Graveside services were Friday at Oakland Memorial Park in Terrell. Arrangements were by Goggans Funeral Home in Terrell.

Mr. Byrd was born on June 7, 1957, in Terrell.

He was an electrician and had been a resident of Irving for several years.

Survivors include his parents Billy and Mary Helen Byrd of Irving; sons Billy Byrd III of Grand Prairie and Nicholas Byrd of Arlington; daughter Misty Boyd of Arlington; and six grandchildren.
