Reverend William Edward Hebekeuser

HEBEKEUSER, REVEREND WILLIAM EDWARD HEBEKEUSER "Father Bill" Born October 22, 1933, in Owoosso, Michigan, and died October 21, 2002, in Irving, Texas. Father Bill is survived by his sisters, Helen Wolfrom of Lansing, MI, Marie Garant of New Lathrop, MI, Margaret Hebekeuser of Lansing, MI, Josephine Brock of Tampa, FL; brothers Charles Hebekeuser of Orlando, FL, Donald Hebekeuser, of Owoosso, MI; and a host of nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents, William Charles and Mildred Hebekeuser and his sister, Diane Lohorer. A 1967 graduate of Michigan State University and a United States Army veteran, Fr. Bill's life was dedicated to ministry, both lay and ordained, in the Catholic Church. After a brief time studying for the priesthood as a young man, Fr. Bill first pursued a lay vocation and served with distinction as a high school principal and Director of Religious Education in Catholic parishes in his home state of Michigan. In his over thirty years of service to the Gospel, Fr. Bill was involved in the evangelization and catechesis of innumerable children, youth and adults. In 1984, his faith pilgrim emerged him to Holy Spirit Catholic Church in Duncanville, Texas, where he not only served as a Director of Religious Education, but also served the diocese and was instrumental in the development of innovative ways of introducing inquirers into the rich tapestry of Christian faith that he loved so deeply. During his time of service at Holy Spirit, Fr. Bill once again felt the promptings of the Holy Spirit calling him to serve God's people as an ordained presbyter in the Catholic Church. After receiving his Masters of Divinity Degree from Sacred Heart School of Theology in Hales Corners, Wisconsin, Bishop Charles Grahmman of Dallas ordained him to the priesthood on July 8, 2000. He then served as a parochial vicar at St. Joseph's Church in Richardson, Texas, and later Holy Family in Irving, Texas. Although he often struggled with issues of health, he was animated by an indefatigable love of God and His people and even the night before his death joyfully celebrated the Rite of Acceptance and Welcoming with nine people journeying through RCIA. A champion of the marginalized, Fr. Bill "acted justly, loved tenderly and walked humbly with his God" (Micah 6:8). Those who knew him as a good man and a great priest will remember him. Fr. Bill asked that he be remembered as one who "loved the Lord God, his Church, his family, and his friends, even though at times I may not have shown it. For the love you gave me, thank you. For the hurts that I may have caused you, I ask your forgiveness. For the many sins that I committed, I ask God's forgiveness and the Church's. I pray that you will continue to build the Kingdom of God so that someday our descendants will 'for the second time discover fire' (T. de Chardin')

The Wake Service will be 7:30 PM, Thursday, October 24, 2002, at Holy Spirit Catholic Church, 1111 W. Daniellade in Duncanville, TX, where his body will lie in state beginning at 6:00 PM. Burial will be in the Priests Circle at Calvary Hill Cemetery in Dallas. Jaynes Memorial Chapel in Duncanville is handling arrangements. In lieu of flowers, Fr. Bill requested that donations be sent to the American Heart Association, The American Cancer Society, or a church or charity of one's choice.
