IUEN, III FRANK J., 59, of Irving TX, passed away on January 4, 2002 after a long battle with cancer. He was married March 16, 1996, in Dallas to Patricia McSweeney, who survives at the home. He was born in Kansas City, MO on May 10, 1942, to Frank and Virginia O'Farrell Iuen. He grew up in Jefferson City, MO and was a 1960 graduate of Jefferson City Senior High School where he served as Student Body President and President of the Missouri Association of Student Councils. After graduating, he earned a B.S. Degree in Business and Public Administration in 1964 and a Juris Doctorate Degree in 1967 from the University of Missouri. He was a member of QEBH and Sigma Rho Sigma honorary organizations, was active in university student government, served in the student senate and was elected Vice President of the Missouri Students Association. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity. While attending the university, he served in the Missouri Air National Guard, receiving an honorable discharge in September 1961. From July 1967 to August 1970, he served as the Assistant Director and General Counsel for the Missouri Department of Community Affairs. While working as the Missouri Liaison Officer with the Ozarks Regional Commission from August 1970 to January 1973, he served as the intermediary between the Office of the Governor and the various federal agencies involved in the Commission. The ORC was in charge of developing and administering regional programs covering the six-state area of Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma. In January 1973 he moved to Little Rock, AR when he was named as the Commission's Executive Director and General Counsel. He served as President and General Counsel of the Council of Ozarks Governors, Inc., from October 1981 to July 1983, which was the successor organization of the Ozarks Commission. In July 1983, he moved to Tulsa, OK where he accepted the position of Project Manager of Tulsa Properties with Landmark Land and Company, Inc., a national real estate development and management company headquartered in Carmel, CA. In 1986, he relocated to Dallas, TX, accepting the position of general counsel for J. W. Bateson Company, Inc., later known as Centex Construction Company, a subsidiary of Centex Corporation. He was later elected Vice President, serving until his retirement in April 1999. He was a member of the Missouri Bar Association, the American Bar Association and the University of Missouri Alumni Association. He was a member of the Optimist Club of Little Rock, Ducks Unlimited, and Associated General Contractors. He was active in Hearts and Hammers, Texas Construction Lawyers Division, and the Children's Advocacy Center of Dallas. Survivors include his mother, Virginia, and a sister, Cathy Barron, both of Kansas City; two daughters, Jiffy Iuen of New York City and Katy Iuen of Phoenix, AZ; two brothers, Bill Iuen of Houston, TX and Mike Iuen of Wichita, KS, and six nieces and nephews. Frank was a man of great integrity, leadership and courage, never losing his desire to live or sense of humor. His outgoing and charming personality endeared him to all who met him and he leaves behind many friends, co-workers, and acquaintances. In addition, he was a wonderful husband, father, son, brother and uncle to his family. He especially enjoyed his Irish heritage and even planned his wedding to coincide with St. Patrick's Day. The family will receive friends at the funeral home from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., Sunday. Funeral services to be at Holy Family of Nazareth Catholic Church, Irving at 10:00 a.m., Monday.
