McDOUGAL JAMES C. Jim McDougal was born May 12, 1936 in Davidson, Oklahoma. He passed away peacefully on January 22, 2002 after battling Pick's disease for almost four years. His life was marked by unyielding devotion to Carolyn, his wife of 44 years, and to his children, their spouses and his grandchildren. Raised in Oak Cliff, he graduated from Sunset High School in January 1954. He attended North Texas State College where he earned a B.B.A. in Marketing in August 1957 and was a member of Theta Chi Fraternity. In August 1957, he married his high school sweetheart, Carolyn White of Dallas, Texas. He became employed in sales at NCR, and, in October 1958, he took a leave of absence and enlisted in the United States Marine Corps Reserves. In 1963, he moved to Irving, Texas where he and his wife raised their family and became active members of the First Baptist Church of Irving and, subsequently, Plymouth Park Baptist Church. He entered the commercial printing industry in July 1965 by purchasing Jowell Printing Company of Dallas, which he operated until its sale in 1988. In addition to fulfilling considerable commitments to his church including teaching Sunday School, coaching basketball and assisting with church business affairs, he was also actively involved in a wide array of civic and business organizations. Since the early 1970's, Jim and Carolyn have been instrumental in fund raising efforts for the improvement and expansion of the Irving Community Hospital, now known as Baylor Medical Center at Irving. Jim served on the Hospital Foundation Board from 1980-84. He was a leading member of the Irving Chamber of Commerce, serving as Chairman of the Board in 1987-88. Other civic leadership roles include: President, Board of Trustees Irving Community Hospital Authority; President, Texas Board of Directors of Printing Industries Association of Texas in 1982; Director, NCNB Texas National Bank, Irving; Board of Councilors, University of Dallas; President, Cosmopolitan Club, Dallas; President, Board of Trustees, Irving Symphony Orchestra Association; member of Rotary International. He filled the balance of his time traveling with his wife, enjoying his grandchildren and playing golf and tennis with his friends. His parents, Jennings Wiley and Gladys McDougal of Dallas, preceded him in death. Jim is survived by his wife Carolyn; his son Cary and wife Kris and their sons Aaron and Luke of Flower Mound, Texas; his son Chris and wife Shannon and their daughters Fallyn, Ally and Jayden of Frisco, Texas; and his son Craig McDougal of Dallas, Texas. The example he set by his commitment to his wife and family, church, community and friends will always be remembered. Friends are invited to visitation from 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 24, 2002 at Brown's Memorial Funeral Home, 707 N. MacArthur Blvd., Irving, Texas. Services will be held on Friday, January 25th at 12:00 Noon at Plymouth Park Baptist Church, Irving, Texas, 1714 N. Story Road, Irving, Texas. Interment to be held at 3:30 P.M. at Evergreen Cemetery, Lipan, Texas. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorials be made to The Irving Healthcare Foundation, P.O. Box 153705, Irving, Texas 75015 in honor of James C. McDougal. Brown's Memorial Funeral Home 707 N. MacArthur Blvd. Irving (972) 254-4242

MUENSE, LENORA BESS STORY MUENSE, age 87, a long time Irving resident, went home to her Lord, April 17, 2004. Lenora was born September 1, 1916 in Irving to pioneer residents, Fanny Farine and W. C. Story. She married John F. Muense, Jr. on October 1, 1938. Lenora spent her life interested in the well being of others and making a difference in the Irving community. Her local involvement included active participation in the Irving Garden Center, the Irving Art Association, Priceless Personality Club and South MacArthur Church of Christ.

Her interest in sharing the gospel took her to Australia and New Zealand on Campaigns for Christ. Always eager to continue her education and developing her talents, later in her life she obtained her real estate license and began a career in real estate. She also took art classes and became an accomplished artist, sharing her art with others. Lenora loved painting, playing the piano, designing and creating her family's clothing, caring for and sharing her flowers, especially her irises. Most of all, she loved the Lord our Savior, and her family. As a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, she took great pride in sharing her wisdom and passions with those she cared for. Preceded in death by John Muense, her husband of sixty-five years; sisters Rose Clapp, Susie Gallemore, Ada Lea Million, Grace Watts, Audrey Brunson and brothers William Story, Clarence Story and great granddaughter, Katie Marie Crabtree.
