Louise Caroline Oneal

ONEAL, LOUISE CAROLINE ONEAL, a pillar of light, strength, and joy for our family, left us October 29, 2002 to walk with the angels. Louise was born in Chicago Illinois in 1928, the youngest of ten children born to Louis and Jenny Capra. Louise married Joseph Charles Oneal in 1947 and was a source of love, pride and grace to him throughout their fifty-six years of marriage. Joe and Louise moved from Chicago to Irving Texas in 1973. The focal point of her life was her family. She absolutely glowed with pride for them. Her three daughters, Laura Jean, Carol Ann, and Allyson Louise were blessed with a wonderful mother, and will miss her mightily but rejoice in the grace and legacy she gave them. Her three sons-in-law, Carl Koellman, Larry Thompson, and David Palmer will deeply miss their second mother, who loved them as sons and will be watching to make sure they take care of her daughters. For her eight grandchildren, Jennifer Faletti, Jill McDonald, Richard Faletti, Shelby Thompson, Caitlin Thompson, Matthew Palmer, Jeffrey Palmer, and Kyle Palmer, and her great-grandson, Damon, Louise was the consummate Na-Na. Always there with a smile, a loving hug and kiss, candy in the drawer and cheeseballs in the cabinet. Louise dearly loved her brothers and sisters, and is survived by Rose Irwin, Marie Adams, Pat Duffel, Chris Capra and Louis Capra, along with many nieces, nephews, and cousins who were touched by her blessing. We are all better people for having had her in our lives. We are blessed with the flood of memories of Louise and the glow of her spirit, fortitude and grace continues to brighten our way through the dark void we feel in her passing. A memorial service will be held 3 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 2, 2002 at Donnelly's Colonial Chapel. Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home 606 W. Airport Frwy. (972) 579-1313 www.donnelyscolonial.com
