Police: Irving house fire intentional

02/22/2002

From Staff Reports

Fire officials have determined that a blaze that caused an Irving home to explode was intentionally set, said Irving police spokesman Officer Dave Tull.

Authorities believe John Durrett Poston used an accelerant to start the blaze, which was intensified by gunpowder kept in the home.

Mr. Poston, who was found in the rubble, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. There were no other injuries. Neighbors said Mr. Poston had become increasingly despondent following the deaths of his parents in the last two years.
