Wayne Franklin Shields
1911 - 2003

On Saturday, Jan. 4, 2003, Wayne Franklin Shields was called home to be with his Lord, whom he loved dearly and never hesitated to express that love to others.

Funeral: 2 p.m. Tuesday at Brown's Memorial Funeral Home, Irving. Burial: Oak Grove Memorial Gardens in Irving, where Mr. Shields will be buried beside his wife and just a short distance from his son-in-law, Bob D. White, who predeceased him in 1982.

On Jan. 15, 1911, God sent one of his most precious creations to Dora Bolton Shields and Willie Franklin Shields in Roosevelt County, New Mexico Territory, where Wayne Franklin Shields was destined to bring a ray of never-ending sunshine and love not only into their lives, but also into the life of his wife of 69 years, Nona Frances Gibbs Shields, and their three children. She predeceased him in 2001.

Mr. Shields moved to Hunt County at the early age of 2 and was a hard-working farmer until he moved his family to California in 1941. While in California, he was proud to be a part of the defending team of Americans who truly loved their country enough to make genuine sacrifices to ensure the safety of its people and their homeland during World War II. He made his valuable contribution in the defense plants, making the planes needed by the American troops overseas.

After returning to Texas in 1949, Mr. Shields became a Baptist deacon and gave his time to the Lord by teaching young people the joys of living a life for Christ. He received much pleasure in reading the Bible on a daily basis. He retired from Corrigan Properties in 1979 after 35 years' service.

He was proud to call the Corinthians Retirement Home in Carrollton his final home over the past year. He leaves behind many, many newfound friends at the Corinthians, along with special memories they made together during the sunset of life. He also leaves behind a lifetime of friends, since he made new and long-lasting ones everywhere he went. Almost everyone he knew was his "very good friend" in his eyes.

He will be deeply missed by his loving family ... but we can find solace in knowing he is at peace in his heavenly home, and he will always be just a prayer away.

He was preceded in death by five sisters, one brother and his wife.

Survivors: Children, Barbara J. White of Whitney, Kenneth Wayne Shields of Tucson, Ariz., and Jerry Ray Shields of Watauga. During his 92 years on this earth his love extended to 10 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren and his daughters-in-law, Denise Shields and Shirley Shields. He is also survived by a brother, Guy Shields of Greenville and many nieces and nephews.
