

H.Q. Murdoch

Dr. H.Q. Murdoch, 86, of Gainesville died Tuesday at Denton Community Hospital. Services were Saturday at Friendship Baptist Church in Tioga, Texas, with burial at New Hope Cemetery in Mountain Springs, Texas. Arrangements were by Slay Memorial Funeral Home in Aubrey, Texas.

Mr. Murdoch was born April 10, 1917, in Salmon, Texas. He was a graduate of Texas Chiropractic College in San Antonio and was a chiropractic doctor.

Survivors include his son, Monte S. Murdoch of Arlington; stepsons, James Grounds of Gainesville and Jack Grounds of Sugar Land, Texas; six grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

1 MN P 2 K

Oct 12, 2003

James Murphey

James Larry Murphey, 65, of Irving died Monday at a Dallas hospital. Services were Wednesday at the Liberty Hill Cemetery in Frankston, Texas. Arrangements were by Thompson Funeral Home in Jacksonville, Texas.

Mr. Murphey was born Aug. 2, 1938, in Frankston. He was a brick mason and a member of the Assembly of God Church.

Survivors include his wife, Faye Murphey of Irving; sons, Rusty Murphey of Hurst and Jeff Powell of Georgetown, Texas; daughters, Maxelle Weishner of Kemp, Texas, and Gina McNeeley of Sacramento, Calif.; father, Dudley Murphey of Frankston; brothers, David Murphey and Richard Murphey, both of Frankston; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Rosa Murphy

Rosa Maria Solis Murphy, 42, of Irving died Wednesday at her home. Services were Friday at Brown's Memorial Funeral Home.

Ms. Murphy was born July 12, 1961, in Gilroy, Calif. Survivors include her husband, William Joseph Murphy of Irving; mother, Paula Solis; daughter, Angela Maria Murphy; sisters, Paula Solis and Alma Ester Solis; and brothers, Raul Solis Jr., Andres Solis, Heriberto Solis, Manuel Solis and Miguel Solis.

 View/Sign Guest BookMurphree, Pearl Bradshaw

MURPHREE, PEARL BRADSHAW Born on August 13, 1918. Left for her heavenly home on November 13, 2003. Pearl was preceded in death by her husband B.B. Murphree in January of this years. They had been married 66 years. Pearl and B.B. were members of Hickory Tree Baptist Church for about 50 years. She is survived by son and his wife, Jerry and Linda Murphree of Mesquite, daughters, Sue Allen of Gun Barrel City, and Annette Boley of Payne Springs; 6 grandchildren, Darla, Mike (Monica), Alicia, Jeff (Shelly), David, and Lonnie (Erin); 5 great-grandchildren, Elizabeth, Bryan, Clyde Jr., Daniel and Madison; a brother and his wife Kenneth and Sylvia Bradshaw of Anna; and many nieces and nephews. We loved her so much. She is now safe and well with Jesus. Family will receive friends from 2:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. Sunday November 16, 2003 at Troy Suggs Funeral Home. Funeral Service will be Monday November 17, 2003 at 1:00 P.M. in the Troy Suggs Funeral Home Chapel with interment to follow in Grove Hill Memorial Park Troy Suggs Funeral Home Family Owned & Operated 7623 Military Pkwy Dallas TX 75227 (214) 381-1109

Published in the Dallas Morning News on 11/15/2003.

 View/Sign Guest Book

Sylvia Myhill

MYHILL, SYLVIA MYHILL. Born July 24, 1942 in Luton, Bedfordshire, England to James Oliver and May Lena Oldfield Cumming. On Feb. 24, 2003, Sylvia left this world to join her Lord and Savior. She was a kind and loving person - always willing to help people and admired by her friends and family. She came to Dallas in 1978 with her husband, David, to whom she had been married for 34 years, and their sons, Paul and Stuart. For the last four years, they have lived in Hackberry Creek, Las Colinas, Irving. Prior to this, except for two years in Orlando, they lived in Plano, where their sons went to Plano schools. While there, she worked for The City of Plano for almost ten years as an assistant to Joe Francis, head of the human resources department. Following this, she worked for David Griffin, a former City Manager of Plano, who headed up the Dallas Regional Mobility Coalition. After Mr. Griffin's retirement, she worked for James McCarley, former Assistant City Manager of Plano, who succeeded Mr. Griffin. Shortly after moving to Las Colinas, she returned to her earlier role as a homemaker. Sylvia was a member of the faith community of the Church of the Incarnation on the campus of the University of Dallas, she enjoyed playing the piano, knitting for her grandchildren, walking her two Labradors, exercising with her friends at The Sports Club at the Four Seasons Resort, and her hobby of stained glass creations. Survived by her husband David Myhill; sons Paul Robert Myhill of Castle Rock, CO and Stuart James Myhill of Centennial, CO; brother Graham J. Cumming of Milton Keynes, England; grandchildren Faith Elizabeth Myhill, Caleb Hudson Myhill, Morgan Lena Myhill and a grandson in July. A rosary and visitation will be held 7:30 p.m., Friday at Donnelly's Colonial Chapel. Mass of Christian Burial 10:30 a.m., Saturday, March 1, 2003 at the Church of the Incarnation on the University of Dallas campus. Father Charles Latour, OP, celebrant. In accordance with Sylvias wishes, her cremated remains are to be returned to England, to rest at her Mother and Fathers grave in Luton, Bedfordshire, her birthplace. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Church of the Incarnation Music ministry in Sylvias name. Immediately following the service, friends are invited to join the family at the Myhill home in Las Colinas. Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home 606 W. Airport Frwy. (972) 579-1313 www.donnelyscolonial.com

Published in the Dallas Morning News on 2/28/2003.

Sylvia Myhill

Sylvia Myhill, 60, of Irving died Monday. A funeral Mass was Saturday at Church of the Incarnation at the University of Dallas. Arrangements were by Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home.

Sylvia Myhill

Ms. Myhill was born July 24, 1942, in Luton, England. She moved to Dallas in 1978 with her family. She worked for the city of Plano for almost 10 years as an assistant to Joe Francis, head of the Human Resources Department. She also worked for a former city manager and former assistant city manager in Plano. She was a member of the Church of the Incarnation.

Survivors include her husband, David Myhill of Irving; sons, Paul Robert Myhill of Castle Rock, Colo., and Stuart James Myhill of Centennial, Colo.; brother, Graham J. Cumming of Milton Keynes, England; and three grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Church of the Incarnation music ministry in Ms. Myhill's name.

March 1, 2003