Owens, Rodney J.

Owens, RODNEY J., 53, passed away July 25, 2003 in Dallas after an extended battle with kidney disease. Rodney was born on March 7, 1950 in Dallas, Texas. He graduated from Irving High School in 1968 where he received all district honors in football, and was elected by his classmates to several offices including class president. A resident of Dallas, he continued his education at Southern Methodist University where he obtained his Bachelor's degree in accounting in 1972 and his law degree in 1975. He later became a founding partner of the Dallas law firm of Meadows, Owens, Collier, Reed, Cousins & Blau, L.L.P. As an internationally recognized authority on estate and gift tax, he was a charismatic speaker much sought after throughout the United States for over 20 years, not only for his intellect, but also for his wit and humor. Rodney enjoyed a reputation for his creative design. and implementation of sophisticated tax planning techniques. His mission was to master income and estate tax planning, and his passion was to apply that knowledge, together with his considerable talents, to the financial benefit of his clients and their families. You would always find him rooting for the underdog, and never see him turn his back on a friend. He touched the hearts of so many through the years, leaving behind a legacy of integrity, trust and devotion. He is survived by wife Sherry Owens and son Rocky Owens of Dallas, his parents Hubert & Jo Owens of Irving, sister Teresa Owens Johnson of Irving, brothers Gary Owens of Houston and Earl Owens of Humble, and many nieces and nephews. Family will receive friends for visitation on Monday evening from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at Calvary Funeral Home. Funeral Services will be held at First Baptist Church, 403 S. Main St., Irving on Tuesday, July 29, 2003 at 1:00 p.m. Interment will follow at Restland Memorial Park in Dallas, In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Rodney J.
