

Abel, Joseph Payton Terry

ABEL, JOSEPH PAYTON TERRY, Duncanville, TX, was named for his great grandfather, and was lovingly called "Payton" Little JP" or Harry. Born Dec. 10. 2001 and died Dec. 8. 2004 at Cook Children's Hosp. in Ft. Worth. - "Now safe in the arms of Jesus" Survived by his Mama, Alayna Vaughn Abel and Daddy, Paul Abel, 2 sisters, Alyssa & Tessa, 2 brothers, Travis & Preston, Grandmama & Papa, Donna & Donnell Vaughn of DeSoto, TX, Nana & Pepaw, Paula & Bobby Abel of Jacksonville, TX. Also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, & cousins. Surviving a heart defect from birth, we were blessed with our special Payton for 3 years thanks to our Gracious Lord & the wonderful staff at Cook's. He was a special gift from God who brought so many people so much joy! We saw many signs, wonders, and miracles through his short but joyous fulfilled life. By all accounts he should not have been here for this time, but by God's account he was! Payton wanted to grow up to be a fireman like Daddy & loved tractors, animals, chocolate, books, his favorite was "The Big Red Barn", & especially firetrucks! He had memorized John 3:16 and called it "his" verse. He loved to sing songs about Jesus & it comforts our hearts to know that he is with Him. He will live forever in our hearts & memories-we were blessed! A private burial will be held in Corine, TX & a memorial service will be held at Brook Hollow Bapt. Church, 135 W. Wintergreen Rd., DeSoto, TX, Monday. Dec. 13, 6:30 PM with Rev. Louis Wilpitz officiating. In lieu of flowers, an acct. has been established at Bank of America, 2520 W. Irving Blvd, Irving TX, in the name of "Payton Abel Memorial Fund" to assist with his medical expenses.

ADAMS, MICHIKO KASHIWAGI ADAMS was born on March 20th, 1937 in Iwate Prefecture, Japan. She passed away peacefully at home surrounded by love ones the morning of April 18, 2004. She is survived by four brothers and three sisters who all reside in Japan. She is also survived by her son Kenneth Kei Adams, her daughter-in-law Deborah Ann Adams and her granddaughter Isabelle Kei Adams. Michiko battled cancer from the day she was diagnosed back in October of 1993. She remained positive through it all and as her friends will let you know, they could rarely tell that she was sick. Her doctors often commented that they got more out of their patient/physician relationship with her than they felt they gave. Even when she felt horrible, she would take the time to bake rum cakes for her doctors or bring them a present from her most recent trip overseas. Michiko was a devoted mother, excellent wife, efficient director of a large corporation and most recently a doting grandmother. She will be missed by all. Memorial service 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, April 21, 2004 at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 8200 Devonshire Dr., Dallas. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in memory of Michiko Kashiwagi Adams to the Lance Armstrong Foundation (supporting cancer research), P.O.
