MAHER, LOUIS JOSEPH, 82 passed away after a lengthy illness on July 1, 2004. He was born in Ranger, Texas, on January 9, 1922, to Edward R. and Genevieve Maher. With his family, he moved to Dallas in 1930. Mr. Maher attended St. Joseph's High School in Dallas and Riverside Military Academy, Athens, GA. After graduating from Spring Hill College, Mobile, AL, he joined the United States Navy Reserve, where he served as a Navy pilot in the South Pacific from 1943 to 1946. It was in the Navy that he embraced the motto "All should stand their watch." This motto guided him throughout his life, including his service as President of the Navy League -- Dallas Chapter. After returning from the Navy, he joined his brother, Tom, in establishing the Maher Brothers Ford dealership in Oak Cliff. Maher Brothers Ford served the Dallas community for the following three decades. In 1951, Mr. Maher started Trans-National Leasing, where he served as President and CEO until he sold the company and retired in 1992. An innovator in the once-fledgling leasing industry, he was a National President of the American Automotive Leasing Association and a member of the Boards of the Car and Truck Leasing Association of Texas and the American Association of Equipment Lessors. He was a member of Christ the King Catholic Church for over 50 years. He was a past President of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Men and member of the Board of Trustees and Alumni Association of Spring Hill College. Mr. Maher was a Trustee of the Catholic Foundation for 30 years and received the McGill Award for Man of the Year in 1994. For 21 years, he was a Trustee of the University of Dallas and in 1996 the University awarded him an Honorary Doctorate Degree of Humane Letters. He was a Knight of Malta and, in 1963, named a Knight of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. In 1983, Pope John Paul II decorated Mr. Maher with the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice award for his many contributions in the field of Catholic education and to his Church in general. Louis is preceded in death by his son, Edward, his son-in-law, Dan Blast, and his brothers and sisters, Tom, Rita, Martin, and Edward. He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Mary Elizabeth; his daughters, Margaret Maher, M.D., Jane Blast, and Mary Hughes and husband Ron; his daughter-in-law, Janet Maher; and his sons and daughters-in-laws, Louis and Helen of Houston, John and Janet, Danny and Susan, and Pat and Cathy; sisters-in-law Loretta Kervin, Mary Ann Kervin of Ft. Worth, and Rita Maher; brother and sister-in-law, Gene & Frances Kervin; grandchildren, Julie, Stephanie, Emily, Stephen, Ellen, Haley, Delaney, Danny, Kelly Thomas and husband Brian, and Joanne and Danny Blast; and numerous nieces and nephews. The Rosary will be Sunday, July 4, 6:30 p.m., at Sparkman/Hillcrest Funeral Home. A Celebration of Life will be Monday, July 5, 10:00 a.m., at Christ the King Catholic Church. Burial will follow at Calvary Hill Mausoleum. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Catholic Foundation, 5310 Harvest Hill, Dallas, 75230, the University of Dallas for the Maher Athletic Center fund, 1845 E. Northgate, Irving, 75062, or the charity of your choice. The family would like to thank Walnut Place's staff for their care.
