McAdams, Steve View/Sign Guest Book

McADAMS, STEVE was a rare and wonderful man. His courageous optimism, selfless service and depth of love and friendship consistently inspired those around him for all of his 48 years. Even in his final days, Steve's sense of humor and faithful spirit were a tremendous comfort to others. This beloved husband, father, son, brother, soldier, leader and friend finally joined his heavenly Father on October 21, 2004 after a long battle with cancer. Stephen Douglas McAdams was born on April 1, 1956 in Honolulu, Hawaii. As one of five children of Donald and Marilyn McAdams, Steve established himself early in life as a gifted athlete and loyal friend. Even as a young man, Steve's dashing good looks and infectious smile made him impossible to ignore. Shortly after high school, Steve decided to serve his country by enlisting in the United States Army. Starting out as a Buck Private, Steve's military career eventually spanned twenty years, culminating in his retirement at the field-grade rank of Major. In the Army, Steve was never satisfied to take the easy road. He always volunteered for the toughest duty assignments and the most demanding training, and he always came out on top. Steve qualified as an Airborne Paratrooper and was honored to be a graduate of the U.S. Army's elite Ranger School. Steve was also selected to attend the Army's demanding Special Forces Qualification Course (the "Green Berets"). Upon graduation, he commanded one of only twelve Special Forces A-Teams in Europe at the height of the Cold War. Throughout his Army career, regardless of his rank or position, Steve was known as a "soldier's soldier." Drawing on his experience as a former enlisted man, Steve was a natural and inspiring leader to all of the young, American infantrymen entrusted to his care. After leaving the military with numerous honors and awards, Steve came to Dallas in 1992, to open what would ultimately become the final, and most fulfilling chapter of his life. In Dallas, Steve would finally put his engineering degree from Virginia Tech to good use as a project manager for Panda Energy International. In addition to his incredible work in San Antonio on the Gualupe Project for Panda, Steve traveled the globe acquiring and opening environmentally friendly power plants in places like Honduras and Nepal. Steve was especially proud of his association with Panda and the contributions he was helping them make in providing clean energy supplies to underdeveloped areas around the world. But, most importantly, it was here in Dallas that Steve finally met the love of his life and true soul mate, Angela Johnson. Steve swept this young schoolteacher off her feet and the two were married in 1994. Without question, Steve and Angela's time together and their journey from being a young couple in Love, to a loving family of five, was the highlight of Steve's incredible life. But, even before this cherished family entered his life, they were what Steve McAdams was all about. Angela, Drew, Meghan and Jack Landon have been eternally intertwined with Steve. They were the reason he served his country with such distinction. They were the inspiration behind his successes in business and his unquestioned honor and integrity as a man. They were the height of his joy as he walked this earth. They were what he lived for. Along with Angela, Steve's wife of ten years, and his children, Drew, Meghan and Jack Landon, Steve is survived by his parents, Donald and Marilyn McAdams of Virginia Beach, VA.; sisters and their husbands, Kathy and David Anderson of Atlanta, GA; Karen and Amir Kangari of Tampa, FL; and Maureen and Murrey Loflin of Virginia Beach, VA; nephews, Reilly Loflin and Phillip Kangari; nieces, Haley Loflin, Ashley Anderson and Hannah Anderson; in-laws, Doris and Jim Johnson of Irving, TX; sister-in-law and her husband, Manon and David Kelly; and countless loving and supportive friends. Steve was preceded in death by his sister, Deborah McAdams. The family will receive visitors at Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home in Irving, Texas on Sunday, October 24th from 1-3 p.m. and Monday, October 25th from 6-8 p.m. A mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 12 Noon on Tuesday, October 26, 2004 at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Irving, Texas, the Reverend Keith Roberson officiating. Following the mass, a graveside service with full military honors will be held at the DFW National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, Steve requested that donations be made to the American Cancer Society. A trust fund for the education of his three children has been established at Comerica Securities, 8850 Bodeker Street, Dallas, TX 75225, Attn: David Wright. 800-934-3995 option
